You have expressed an interest to run on the CMAK Sandy Hook Memorial Foundation/Race4Chase team at the TCS New York City Marathon as a charity runner. CMAK has been granted 20 charity bibs and will select the twenty runners between April 1st and September 1st, 2023.

To assist in this process, please reply to the following questions as soon as possible with the following time-line:

(Note: Any time up to September 15th, 2023, we may be able to receive additional bibs through the program. If you agree to be on the waitlist, you would need to be in condition to run the 2023 TCS New York City Marathon in November as well as raise the minimum $3,000 minimum requirement, even though you would not know until that time.)

What is your inspiration for representing the CMAK Race4Chase Team at the 2023 TCS New York City Marathon?

Notes:

Please submit this application via email attachment to Kevin Grimes, Executive Director, CMAK at kgrimes@cmakfoundation.org

Once each of the charity runners are selected, there will be an online registration process needed to be completed by the athletes including paying the entry fees and additional paperwork (waivers) before the bibs can be officially claimed. Athletes selected must complete this process within two weeks of receiving confirmation of their selection.

Thank you for your interest in joining our team! If you have any specific questions, please reach out to Kevin Grimes at kgrimes@cmakfoundation.org
