MRS CATHERINE MURRAY

On Wednesday we had a special Assembly to wish our secretary, Mrs Murray, all the best for her retirement. The Head Teacher spoke about Mrs Murray's 24-and-a-half years in the school, and Miss MJ Macleod read out a poem. All classes presented Mrs Murray with a card. The whole Assembly was constantly interrupted by staged telephone calls to give Mrs Murray one last reminder of the business of her role. We will miss Mrs Murray from the school office. Happy Retirement to you.

OUTDOOR LEARNING WEEK

All pupils took part in outdoor learning activities this past fortnight and we are very thankful for the great weather we had for it. Each class teacher signed up to the 'RSPB Wild Activities Challenge' and enjoyed a range of learning experience. Pupils built dens, spotted wildflowers, studied mini-beasts, observed the weather, wrote about nature, explored habitations, and more. Learning will be shared on Seesaw and Facebook.

WALK TO PORTER'S LODGE

As part of the Outdoor Learning Week all classes and the Sgoil Araich groups walked to Porter's Lodge on Monday to plant Wildflower seed bombs. The Eco committee demonstrated how to make the seed bombs in all classes last week so pupils all contributed to this and enjoyed doing so.

CUACH NA CLOINNE

Well done to the pupils in our Gaelic Medium classes who competed in the Cuach na Cloinne competition today at Smith Avenue. The pupils played well and enjoyed being part of the competition. Lacasdail B made it to the final of the competition, which Sgoil nan Loch won 1-0. We are proud of you all.
