GREETINGS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS
THE APPROACH

A warm welcome to our guest pastor – Jack Fashbaugh

PRELUDE: “Morning Has Broken” Rebecca Wright

*INTROIT – “Surely the Presence of the Lord is in This Place”

*CALL TO WORSHIP

LITURGIST: Hear our voices when we call, O Lord

PEOPLE: Be merciful to us and answer us.

LITURGIST: Our hearts say of You, “Seek His face!”

ALL: Your face, Lord, we will seek.

Psalm 21 (adapted)

*INVOCATION

Dear God, we thank You for this place, this time, and the call we have received to draw closer to You. We would shape our intentions according to Your Will. We would live as if Your Kingdom can be actual Ed, minute by minutes, day be day, even in this life. Thy Will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Amen

*HYMN: “As Deer Long for the Streams” No.626

CALL TO CONFESSION

THE UNISON CONFESSION OF SIN

Almighty God, from Whom every good prayer comets, and Who poured at out, on all who desire it, the spirit of grace and supplication: Deliver us, when we draw nigh to Thee, from coldness of heart and wandering of mind – that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections we may worship Thee in spirit and in truth. Amen.

HYMN RESPONSE: “Lead Me Lord”

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

When we reflect on the first of what are known as “the Beatitudes” – “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven” – we understand that to be “poor in spirit” is to be humble in heart. Another translation of the first of “the Beatitudes “ reads “How blest are those who know their need for God; the kingdom of heaven is theirs.” Humble in heart, poor in spirit, knowing our need for God, we ask that our sins be forgiven, and we do so in the faith that through Christ Jesus they are, indeed, forgiven.

HYMN RESPONSE: “Gloria Patri”
