Re: Our interim time together

Frances and I are so pleased to be serving you all in ministry. As Interim Pastor, my task is to help the church get from one pastor to the next by taking care of the church's pastoral tasks—preaching and Bible study, pastoral care, and administration—thereby allowing the Pastoral Nominating Committee to do its work in finding your next pastoral leader. As a first step in introducing myself, I thought it might be helpful to tell you a bit about ourselves and our approach to ministry and to life.

Office Hours. I will have regular office hours on Tuesday mornings from 9 to 12. I will be available for emergencies—both physical and spiritual and can be reached at the church phone number 715-588-7150, our home number 715-476-7656, and on my cell, 859-327-8355. And of course, a very effective way for contact is after Sunday morning worship hour. You may not have an emergency, but I would love to get together for a chat anyway. Feel free to come on into the church for such. My email address is muckterry@gmail.com

Worship. As regards our worship times together, I thought this might be a good time to review some of the basics of what it means to be a Christian and a Christian Church at this point in time. My first few sermons will rehearse our basic needs to be agents of reconciliation, beacons of righteousness, models of what it means to be created in the image of God, and churches that are salt and light to the world. After that I will preach from one of my favorite biblical books, Revelation.

For the past ten years I have been an honorably retired minister of the Word and Sacrament in the PC(USA). I was a member of Tres Rios Presbytery in Texas, but recently transferred my membership to Northern Waters Presbytery. Both Frances and I have been seminary professors, Frances at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary where she taught mission and theological ethics and me at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary where I taught courses on mission and world religions.

Since 1988 we have been coming to the Northern Waters area—we own a lake home near Mercer—for our summers. We look forward to getting to know you all better.

A word of welcome to our Pastor

An Ode to Dads

God took the strength of a mountain, the majesty of a tree, the warmth of a summer sun, the calm of a quiet sea.

The generous soul of nature, the comforting arm of night,
the wisdom of the ages, the power of the eagle's flight.

The joy of a morning in spring, the faith of a mustard seed,
the patience of eternity, the depth of a family need.

Then God combined these qualities, when there was nothing more to add,
He knew his masterpiece was complete, and so, he called it...Dad.
