 3 From ten - der child - hood's help - less - ness, from hu - man 4 The cup of wa - ter given for you still holds the cries of race and clan, a - bove the noise of thresh - olds fraught with fears, from paths where hide the grief and bur - dened toil, from fam - ished souls, from fresh - ness of your grace; yet long these mul - ti - self - ish strife, we hear your voice, O Son of Man.

 lures of greed, we catch the vi - sion of your tears.
 sor - row's stress, your heart has nev - er known re - coil.
 tudes to view the sweet com - pas - sion of your face.

5 O Master, from the mountainside, make haste to heal these hearts of pain;
 among these restless throngs abide;
 O tread the city's streets again;

6 Till all the world shall learn your love,
 and follow where your feet have trod;
 till glorious from your heaven above shall come the city of our God.

Because dense populations always result in concentrated hardships, this vivid yet timeless evocation of urban need connects to our own day as well as to Jesus' lament over Jerusalem (Matthew 23:37/Luke 13:34). This tune was the first used with this text and is now customary.
