

Greasepaint & Greed 12 Guests (12 female)

Wow, the New York audience loved it – the applause was still ringing out long after the curtain came down on the opening night of ‘Flapper Girls’. Broadway theatre owner Harry Verderci knew he was onto a winner the minute he set eyes on the script and boy was he right! The opening night party had already started backstage and the champagne was flowing freely but where was Harry? Minutes later the stage hand comes rushing in to the room – Harry was dead! He had been found slumped in a chair in his office. It surely wasn’t murder or was it?

The Guest List .....

Bess Sellars

Bess is a talented playwright and author of Flapper Girls. One of Harry’s closest friends, she chose him to stage her latest work. She is very glamorous and wears an elegant black evening dress with matching red boa and high heeled shoes - long red gloves and ruby red lips complete the look. Her long brunette curls hang loose around her shoulders.

Anna Conda

Former girlfriend of Harry’s and well known theatre critic. Her tongue is razor sharp and no one is safe from it. Tonight she has reviewed Harry’s latest show and delights in telling everyone at the party just what she thought of it! She wears a long silver dress and pashmina. Her black hair is cut into a sleek bob and her silver cigarette holder is never far from her side.

Ella Vashow

Ella is at the party to support her friend Twinkle who has a role in the show. She is an exotic dancer but longs to break into acting and often hangs around at the theatre. Always trying to get Harry to notice her, she arrives wearing a sexy pvc dress with long lace gloves and she carries a bottle of Harry’s favourite vodka as a celebratory present. Her red curls are piled high on her head.

Twinkle Toes

Beautiful dancer and chorus girl, Twinkle has a small part in ‘Flapper Girls’ in the dream sequence. She is kind hearted and well liked amongst the cast. Wearing her fairy costume of delicate layers of pink tulle and organza, she floats off stage and straight into the party. She carries a silver sequined wand and matching silver sequins sparkle in her pretty blonde hair.

Milly O’Naire

Blonde wife of tycoon Billy O’Naire, Milly’s love of the arts has led her to invest in the play. Throughout the evening she can be heard telling everyone that tonight would not be possible without her. She models herself on a famous fifties actress and wears a white dress, her trademark dark glasses and the biggest diamonds you have ever seen. A fur coat is draped over her one shoulder and she carries her pet dog in her other hand. Mummy goes no where without Pochie!

Roxy Starr

Harry’s wife and usually the leading lady at the theatre – the other girls never get a look in when she is around! At her insistence Harry has to cast her in the starring role in every play he stages. Determined to outshine the younger actresses she arrives at the party - late as usual - wearing a glittering gold dress, tiara and clutches her Oliver award – didn’t you know she is an award winning actress?

Katja Falling-Star

Popular brunette actress who struggles to get many roles as she often forgets her lines. She could not believe her luck when Harry cast her as a nun in the play. She practiced her lines so many times but it paid off as tonight she was fantastic – every one says so, well with the exception of Dee. She is still in her costume of nun’s habit and wimple complete with a big ornate cross.

Bea Merry

A pretty young girl who was recently employed as Harry’s Personal Assistant and soon became part of the ‘family’. Well organised and excellent at her job, Harry doesn’t know how he would cope without her. She loves dressing up so she couldn’t wait for the party - choosing to wear a red evening dress with a black wrap and matching gloves. Her favourite pearls complete the look.

Lotta Love

Blonde actress and party girl who is playing a starring part of a flapper girl in the show. She loves her work and spends more time at the theatre than at home – maybe this is the reason why she has just divorced her third husband - but who really knows? She arrives at the party wearing a purple flapper dress and head dress and carries a black cigarette holder.

Misty Meanour

A young actress at the theatre who plays the part of a nurse. No one knows much about Misty as she is new to the theatre and she keeps herself to herself. She wears a nurse’s uniform and hat with a stethoscope around her neck. Her dark hair is held back in a neat bun.

Alison Wonderland

A popular girl who works in the box office but definitely has stars in her eyes. She lives in her own little world - much to the amusement of the others. This blonde will do anything to get noticed and arrives at the party wearing just a fur trimmed leotard with matching bunny ears and tail!

Carrie Mehome

Although she only has a supporting role in the production it won’t be long before she gets a starring role of her own with her looks and talent. She looks dazzling tonight in a fringed red flapper dress with a feather headband in her dark curls. Long red gloves and a black boa complete the look.