

High Heels & Hockey Sticks 8 Guests (8 female)

It's September 2011 and the girls in the class of Arnold are graduating with 11 A* GCSEs (well, we can dream girls). Bella De Ball is throwing a 'Black & White' themed black tie dinner to celebrate their success. She has invited her best friends and a few teachers to a spectacular dinner party in a private dining room at the fabulous 'Savaloy-Ritz Hotel' in London. Daddy is paying of course! Just as the girls are tucking into their canapés and cocktails, Harvey Wallbanger, the hotel manager, comes rushing in with the devastating news. The girls' favourite teacher, the very sporty Miss Jilly Hokkystix, has been found dead in the changing rooms of the hotel gym!

Was it a dreadful accident or could it be murder? Who could possibly have a motive to kill the most popular teacher in school?

The Guest List ...

Bella De Ball

Glamorous blonde with a passion for fashion, partying and the finer things in life. Well known for her fantastic parties, she loves to take centre stage and wears a stunning red dress to the party to ensure that she stands out from the other girls. With matching black gloves and boa she looks as beautiful as ever. A real party girl, she would love to work on a glossy magazine – who knows maybe daddy would even buy one for her!

Krys Talle

Pretty brunette who is an excellent athlete – she was awarded 'Athlete of the Year' at the recent school awards. She has a wicked sense of humour but is also the most competitive of the girls and has to be number one no matter what. She was devastated when Miss Hokkystix recently left her out of the school hockey team. Like Bella, she enjoys the finer things in life and often jets off on exotic holidays across the world. She is never far away from her designer diamante sunglasses and wears them perched on her head with an elegant black dress and pashmina with bright pink accessories – she never conforms!

Melody Music

Extremely talented musician who astounds the other girls with the magical music that emits from her flute. She is well liked by all the girls and she spends most of her time in France visiting her family. She is fluent in five languages & she throws random words of French or Italian into conversation, often stopping the others in their tracks. She takes the theme to the extreme and wears a black dress with long white gloves, white boa and the highest heeled white shoes you have ever seen!

Dee Mante

By day she spends all her time at the stables but by night transforms into a glamour puss (that's when she can get the hay and manure from under her nails!) Voted 'Helper of the Year' at school, she leaves her apron and waitress shoes at home and wears a white dress with long silver gloves, silver shoes, a silver wrap and the gaudiest diamante jewellery around!

April Showers

Petite blond with a love of everything sporty – whether it's the fashion or taking part. In fact, her parents are thinking of moving house to accommodate her wardrobe and trophies. She is 'Sportswoman of the Year' at school and has just represented Great Britain in the Heptathlon at the Junior World Championships—her sights are now set firmly on the Olympics! Glamorous to the end, she wears a sensational black dress and long pearls complete the look.

Angel Dust

Lovely brunette whose natural beauty outshines the others - even with their glitz and glam. She excels at Taekwondo and has reached the highest level by gaining a black belt – nobody messes with her. She was not happy at the prospect of wearing a dress but looks gorgeous in her black prom dress (even though her mum made her wear it). She doesn't wear any accessories – Bella should thank her lucky stars that she is wearing a dress!

Wanda Party

Wanda loves to be pampered and is often found at the beauticians – she yearns to be a model one day and enjoy the lifestyle that goes with it. It won't be too long now as she has already appeared in the Spanish edition of 'Hi' magazine. She is always playing with her long brown hair which she wears loose to the party. Her simple dress is adorned with just a floral corsage – after all ones clothes should never be more outstanding than ones self.

Boo Font

Popular drama teacher who is a mother figure to all the girls. They always turn to her in their hours of need! She is only a teacher so that she can take long holidays to her favourite places, Dubai & South Africa, with her new man – Tom Katt. She is a true glamour girl and is never seen without make-up and her shiny blonde hair is always perfect – just how will she cope on the school camping trip?! She is very dramatic in her make up, she wears a long white dress with a black feathered sequin headband, long beads and a sequinned cigarette holder complete her look.
