God's Relationship with David

Now the LORD said to Samuel, ...Fill your horn with oil, and go; I am sending you to Jesse the Bethlehemite. For I have provided Myself a king among his sons.

1 Samuel 16:1 (NKJV)

God Himself chose David; before he was a shepherd or king of Israel. God had already called him from his mother's womb. He set His eyes on David, and God found in him a friend. He knew that David would love His presence more than his own reputation. For this reason, when God gave him rest from the enemies surrounding him, David said to the prophet Nathan, "I live in a beautiful cedar palace, while the ark of God is outside in a tent!" I firmly believe that the Father was so pleased with David's declaration that He Himself made a covenant with David. God told him the following: "Your house and your throne will be secure forever."

The Tabernacle of David

“On that day I will raise up the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down...”

Amos 9:11 (NKJV)

David's tabernacle was staffed by musicians, men skilled for the work of his ministry. God loved David's worship so much that He Himself promised to raise the tabernacle again. This promise is for us, it is for today. It is our inheritance, the legacy left to us by King David. This is how we will see the revival we have been waiting for. Our hearts ignited by the fire of His Spirit. We know that He who promised is Faithful and will never fail us. We also know that God is going to visit our nation. Just as Elijah prayed for rain in the midst of a drought, Colombia also cries out for God's rain. For an awakening throughout our nation.

The Heart of David

‘I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after My own heart, who will do all My will.’

Acts 13:22 (NKJV)

We need to have David's heart because he had God's heart. If we truly want to see as a nation the awakening, the promise of our Father, we must have His heart for this hour, for this moment. He loved us so much that He gave His Son. Not for one or two, but for each one of us. Jesus gave everything to save us, every drop of His Blood. We can only be grateful for His eternal mercy. While we were still sinners, Jesus died for us. To know the width and length and depth and height of the love of Christ.

Heaven Rules

...Heaven rules.

Daniel 4:26 (NKJV)

God sits on His throne, and everything under Heaven belongs to Him. Just as God raised David, so He will raise Colombia. As it is written:

“The Spirit of the LORD is upon Me,
Because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives
And recovery of sight to the blind,
To set at liberty those who are oppressed.

Luke 4:18 (NKJV)

Prayer

Jesus, we pray for our beloved nation on this Easter Sunday. Raise up Colombia and heal our land. May Your beautiful Holy Spirit breathe upon us. May we as a nation have one King; You, our Lord and Savior:
JESUS CHRIST.
