Thank you to Frank Chantos for coming and cleaning out the flower garden in the front of the Church and around the Church property.

Thank you to our Heavenly Dusters who come and clean the Church each month. Finally, thank you to those who help decorate the Church throughout the year and will be doing so for the Easter Season.

We would like to send a special thank you to Harold Puzey and Darin Troglia for the Beautiful music in John's celebration. You guys did such an amazing job and made us so proud!

We love you!

PARISH NURSE'S CORNER

Judy Sheets, Karen Trimble, JoAnn Thompson

Being seriously ill is no laughing matter. Professionals have recognized that those patients who maintain a positive mental attitude and shared laughter, responded better to treatment.

Body Response to Laughter:

- Increased Respirations
- Increased Circulation
- Hormonal & Digestive Enzyme Secretion
- Leveling of Blood Pressure

All Good Things For Your Health!

Tips To Make You Feel Better:

- Watch you favorite, funniest videos/movie
- Share a laugh with a friend
- Have one good belly laugh each day
- Take 15 minutes to yourself at least once a day
- Find humor in something ordinary daily
- Smile at 5 people you see today & see how many smile back. Smiling is contagious! If someone smiles at you, then smile back. *Reminder: It takes less muscles to smile than it does to frown.
