Trick or Treat Tips

- Small children should be with their parents or another trustworthy responsible person.
- Older children should NOT go alone! They should always have a buddy or be in a group.
- Route being taken should be planned ahead of time and left with the parents. It is advisable to go in an area that is familiar.
- Wear bright colored clothing. Reflective clthing is encouraged. Use glow sticks or flashing necklaces to help make you more noticable to cars.
- Refrain from wearing masks. Using makeup is safer.
- Wear comfortable shoes.
- Have a sturdy bag to collect your treats.
- Take your cell phone.
- Go ONLY to houses with porch lights on.
- Do NOT go into a house.
- Be polite and say "Thank You!"
- Walk on sidewalks, not in the street.
- Do NOT walk through people's property.
- Respect people's decorations.
- Do NOT eat treats until they are fully examined by your parents. Anything that looks suspicious, throw away!

Have a Safe & Happy Halloween!

Annual Diocesan Appeal

It is once again time to give to the ADA. Thank you to those who have already turned in their pledge cards. As I continue to get updates from the Diocese on our totals, I will post updates:

Our Goals for the 2026/2027 Year:

St. Mary's Church:	$37,743.00
St. Isaac Jogues Church:	$7,303.00

Our Current Totals Received:

St Mary's Church:	$4,446.00
St. Isaac Jogues Church:	$1,775.00

We ask that you give towards the ADA instead of St. Mary's or St. Isaac Jogues Church weekly collection, if you cannot afford to give to both. Thank you for giving!
