

South Sound Dance is looking for STRONG, ENERGETIC, and ENTHUSIASTIC dance teachers to join our team! We are a growing dance studio in Olympia, Washington and our team is a combination of AMAZING people that are PASSIONATE about teaching dance! We constantly work to update our curriculum and classes to offer the best technique and training to students in our community. Our team's mission... "to provide a loving and nurturing environment, while challenging each student to reach their fullest potential!"

We are always in need of teachers who LOVE working with young children and teachers that have versatile dance backgrounds in ballet, tap, jazz, hip hop, acro and more. Not sure if you have enough experience? Or haven't worked in all the styles? That's okay. We train all of our team members prior to their first class so that they can hold successful classes for beginner through intermediate levels in ballet, tap, jazz, modern, acro, or hip hop. The most important qualification is that you are PASSIONATE, READY TO LEARN, and READY TO INSPIRE!
