

Corona Sucks, But Our Customers Don't!!! So we want to buy you and your team lunch.

We at LSR love our customers and love the communities we serve. In order to say thank you and to spread a little cheer when the world could use some, we are giving away four $250 lunches for your teams to enjoy now or when you can actually sit at the same table together. We know these times are tough on all our apartment friends, family and customers. We have been seeing the awesome work you all have been posting on the socials and we want to do our part to say "Keep positive, keep working hard and keeping being the awesome people your residents need you to be now more than ever".

All you have to do is click the button below and send us a few paragraphs maybe with a few pictures or a video even telling us what your team is doing to stand out in these challenging times.

Be creative (we like outside the box thinking), be funny (we like to laugh), but most of all, be yourselves (we love our customers just the way they are).

We can't wait to see how you're all being awesome!
