“I came to cast fire on the earth, and would that it were already kindled! I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how great is my distress until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three. They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.” He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, ‘A shower is coming.’ And so it happens. And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, ‘There will be scorching heat,’ and it happens. You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?”

Many people look at nature to predict the weather.
Jesus wants us to look to God, above all.

Draw lines to match each picture with its weather rhyme.

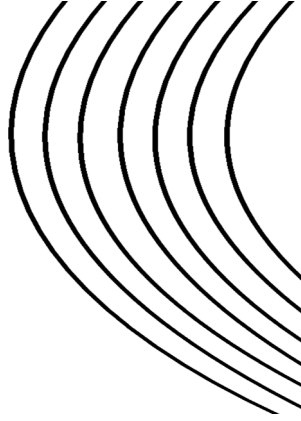

"If a circle forms
around the MOON,
it will surely rain
quite soon."

"RAIN before seven,
clear by eleven!"

"RAINBOW at night,
sailor's delight.
Rainbow in morning,
sailors take warning."

"When LEAVES show their back, rain we won't lack!"

Following Jesus is not always easy.
Sometimes, Christians face hard things
because of our faith.
But God promises that we will never be alone.

Do the maze, and show where we can find fellow travellers on our journey of faith!
