From the Pastor

We celebrate our Lord's resurrection on Easter Sunday, April 20th. The epistle lesson for the day is found in 1 Corinthians chapter 15. In that chapter, Paul lays out what Christ's resurrection means for us redeemed sinners. We, who allow our Creator to re-make us in Christ, "shall all be made alive". We, too, will be resurrected. Not into old creation but into God's "New Heavens and New Earth", that is, into New Creation. Our physical nature will be made "new" like the rest of the created order. We will have transformed bodies like that of Jesus after his resurrection. You will remember that he could appear and disappear at will after being raised from death. So the old order of physical nature will not be the new order in New Creation.

Speculations about God's new creation order by Christian theologians are interesting supposals but they can't really be any more than that. We are just going to have to wait to see what it's really like. Having admitted that, it's still okay to wonder and day dream, I believe.

C.S. Lewis did more than wonder and day dream. He put some of his speculative notions of New Creation into some of his writings, including THE GREAT DIVORCE. In that imaginary journey out of Hell to the "narthex" of Heaven, Lewis has himself revealed to be a "ghost" who can't even walk on the grass without great pain. He is so unreal in that ultimately real place that the water in a stream is solid to him. His fellow ghosts are all met by friends from their earthly life who try to convince the lost souls to follow them "further in and higher up" into the mountains. Some go into the higher country, others refuse the offer and return to the bus that brought them up from Hell. These creatures "...would rather be miserable than have their self-will crossed." They fade and diminish until they are nothing in "the Real World." Lewis has "My Teacher" say, "All Hell is smaller than one pebble of your earthly world; but it is smaller than one atom of this world, the Real World. Look at yon butterfly. If it swallowed all Hell, Hell would not be big enough to do it any harm or to have any taste."

New Creation is thus a reality on a scale with which old creation can only be next to nothing in comparison. Our imaginations are not up to the task of envisioning what God has in store for us when all things are made new. But we are invited to hold on to the promise by faith and look forward with joyful anticipation being resurrected into everlasting splendor and glory.

"Listen, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we will all be changed -- in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed."
(1 Corinthians 15:51-52) Pastor Jeff

Please note: Pastor Jeff will be gone on vacation April 21st - May 24th. If there is an emergency, please call Kim Wiest, 406-450-5821.

Earth-shaking Victory

On Ash Wednesday in 2001, a 6.8 magnitude earthquake shook the Seattle area. Charlie and Ann Lewis, co-pastors in Snohomish, Washington, reflected on the timing: “While most years we prefer to think of Lent as a contemplative journey of faith as we walk with Jesus toward Jerusalem and the cross, this year we are thinking of how God turned the world upside down at Calvary. From the cross, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and his life was finished. Then the earth shook violently, the curtain in the temple was torn in two and rocks were split apart. The God who identified with us in our humanity in the incarnation of Jesus Christ demonstrated in that moment the depth of divine love for us — a love that leads God to choose the path of suffering and sacrifice.

“Three days later, the earth shook again — another violent earthquake, and the stone in front of the tomb was rolled away. Then the crucified Christ threw aside the burial cloths, emerging from the darkness of the tomb to walk in the dew of the grass as dawn was breaking across the sky. God had declared victory over sin and death itself. That victory was for us. ... God has given us a glorious life that extends into eternity.”

GOD IS MY
SALVATION
ISAIAH 12:2

“Between the death of Christ and the Last Day it is only by gracious anticipation of the last things that Christians are privileged to live in invisible fellowship with other Christians. It is by the grace of God that a congregation is permitted to gather visibly in this world to share God’s Word and sacrament. Not all Christians receive this blessing. The imprisoned, the sick, the scattered lonely, the proclaimers of the Gospel in heathen lands stand alone. They know that visible fellowship is a blessing.”

—Dietrich Bonhoeffer

PALM BRANCH — When Jesus entered Jerusalem days before his death, crowds welcomed him by waving palm branches, common symbols of victory and rejoicing. Churches still use them to remember that knowing that Jesus' crucifixion was the ultimate triumph over sin and death. As early as Leviticus 23:40, God commanded Israel to use palms in a festival of rejoicing. In Revelation 7:9-10, Christian martyrs carry palm branches as they praise the Lamb before God's throne.

Prayers to Prepare for Worship

- ✠ Father, I'm grateful for the mix of doubt and faith the disciples exhibited in your word; it encourages me. Bless me with increased belief, even when I cannot see you in person.
- ✠ [Palm Sunday] I imagine myself along the route you traveled into Jerusalem, dear Jesus. I lay branches along your donkey's path and praise you: "Hosanna, Son of David!"
- ✠ [Maundy Thursday] Liberating Lord, you freed Israel from slavery and offer us freedom from sin and death. We are free to love others, even in humble ways like washing feet.
- ✠ [Good Friday] What a strange throne is your cross, Jesus, but as the psalmist wrote, "Dominion belongs to the Lord" (Psalm 22:28). Help us recognize you in places that don't look like worldly power.
- ✠ [Easter Sunday] "The Lord is my strength and my might; he has become my salvation" (Psalm 118:14, NRSV).
