What an Awesome and Orderly GOD!! author unknown

God's order may be observed in the hatching of eggs.

For example:

- the eggs of the potato bug hatch in 7 days;
- those of the canary in 14 days;
- those of the barnyard hen in 21 days;
- The eggs of ducks and geese hatch in 28 days;
- those of the mallard in 35 days;
- The eggs of the parrot and the ostrich hatch in 42 days.

(Notice, they are all divisible by seven, the number of days in a week!)

God's wisdom is seen in the making of an elephant. The four legs of this great beast all bend forward in the same direction. No other quadruped is so made. God ordered that this animal would have a huge body, and for this reason He gave it four fulcrums so that it can rise from the ground easily. The horse rises from the ground on its two front legs first. A cow rises from the ground with its two hind legs first. How wise the Lord is in all His works of creation!

God's wisdom is revealed in His arrangement of fruit, vegetable, and grain seed sections and segments, as well as in the number of seeds/grains.

- Each watermelon has an even number of stripes on the rind.
- Each orange has an even number of segments.
- Each ear of corn has an even number of rows.
- Each stalk of wheat has an even number of grains.
- Every bunch of bananas has on its lowest row an even number of bananas, and each row decreases by one, so that one row has an even number and the next row an odd number.

The waves of the sea roll in on shore twenty-six to the minute in all kinds of weather.

All grains are found in even numbers on the stalks, and the Lord specified thirty fold, sixty fold, and a hundredfold - all even numbers.

God has caused the flowers to blossom at certain specified times during the day, so that Linnaeus, the great botanist, once said that if he had a conservatory containing the right kind of soil, moisture and temperature, he could tell the time of day or night by the flowers that were open and those that were closed!

Thus the Lord in His wonderful grace can arrange the life that is entrusted to His care in such a way that it will carry out His purposes and plans, and will be fragrant with His presence. Only the God-planned safe life is successful. Only the life given over to the care of the Lord is fulfilled.

The lives of each of us are ordered by the Lord in a beautiful way for His glory, if we will only entrust Him with your life. If you try to regulate your own life, it will only be a mess and a failure. Only the One Who made the brain and the heart can successfully guide us to a profitable end.

Psalm 18:46

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE, TO GROW

Luke 19:1-10 Zacchaeus was a tax collector. He was dishonest and was hated by the Jews. Through unjust taxing and the enslavement of the people he had become rich. When he met Jesus and received salvation he determined to do what was right with his money; by giving to the poor and restoring everyone he had wronged. As Christians, like Zacchaeus we are to do what is right with money. Today we will receive tithes and offerings for the support of the church. This is the right thing to do. The Lord has blessed us with food, clothing, shelter, and strength to earn our living. It is only right for us to take a portion of our earnings and give to the church. By our obedience, the church can carry forth the Gospel to the world, minister to the poor, and show the love of Christ.

COMING SEPTEMBER 13-15, 2019 to the Four Seasons Arena in Great Falls!!! Plan on coming! Bring a friend! There is also a final event leading up to the gathering, "Momentum", on August 20th at 7 p.m. at Central Assembly Church in Great Falls. Everyone is invited to attend! If you have any questions, contact Linda O'Brien, 278-5434, or Kim Wiest in the church office, 271-3934.

The next Golden West Council meeting TBA.

PV Council met June 10th. June 16th is new member Sunday. Those joining are: Melissa Shepherd, Carol Wood, Charlie (Selma) Hardeland, Rudy King, Carol Ann & Tim Carse, Leslee, Faith & Grace Weber, Pastor Drew, Kori, and Abigail Nelson. The parsonage is in need of some repairs and tree trimming. Troy is getting a bid for the trees and Bains will be asked to fix the pipes. The lawn mower is not working again and will need to be replaced. Pastor will be getting pulpit supply July 14th and 21st. September 29-October 2nd will be the Annual LCMC Gathering in Omaha, Nebraska. Pastor will be attending and hopefully others too. Tim Salois estimated $500-$1500 to prep the Luther Room for fixing the tiles. The bid from Billman's was reviewed for encapsulating the tiles. The roof bid from Schlossers came in at $9,000 and the council voted to go with it. At the time of the meeting it looked to be late summer or early fall for the roofing but as of this writing, they were able to get the supplies and get right on it presently! The Voyagers game is set for July 4th at 7pm. There is a sign-up sheet in the Fellowship Hall. Everyone is welcome to attend and invite others. We will be sitting in the stands this year so the cost has gone down to approximately $12 per person. The next council meeting will be July 8th at 6 p.m. in the Youth Room.

Many people dream of having the "right stuff" to fly to space. Recently, 18,300 people applied for just 12 astronaut spots at NASA! Fanfare over the moon landing's 50th anniversary is sure to spark even more interest. Leaving behind earthly troubles and floating in zero gravity must be amazing, right? Not, it turns out, for one's body. Weightlessness takes a heavy physical toll in space. Without resistance, muscles waste away and bones weaken. Bodily systems we take for granted are disrupted, causing disorientation.

To counteract these effects, astronauts wear resistance suits while exercising. Ironically, after escaping Earth's gravity, they must replace it. Similarly, we long for trouble-free days and pray for an end to earthly burdens, not recognizing that exertion, whether physical or spiritual, builds strength. "He who knows no hardships will know no hardihood," said Harry Emerson Fosdick. "He who faces no calamity will need no courage. The characteristics in human nature which we love best grow in a soil with a strong mixture of troubles." Every weighty challenge is a reason to "rejoice ... knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope" (Romans 5:3-4, ESV).

HUMOR...GOTTA HAVE SOME...

$5.37. That's what the kid behind the counter at Taco Bell said to me. I dug into my pocket and pulled out some lint and two dimes and something that used to be a Jolly Rancher. Having already handed the kid a five-spot, I started to head back out to the truck to grab some change when the kid with the Elmo hairdo said the harshest thing anyone has ever said to me. He said, "It's OK. I'll just give you the senior citizen discount." I turned to see who he was talking to and then heard the sound of change hitting the counter in front of me. "Only $4.68" he said cheerfully. I stood there stupefied. I am 48, not even 50 yet? A mere child! Senior citizen? I took my burrito and walked out to the truck wondering what was wrong with Elmo. Was he blind? As I sat in the truck, my blood began to boil. Old? Me? I'll show him, I thought. I opened the door and headed back inside. I strode to the counter, and there he was waiting with a smile. Before I could say a word, he held up something and jingled it in front of me, like I could be that easily distracted! What am I now? A toddler? "Dude! Can't get too far without your car keys, eh?" I stared with utter disdain at the keys. I began to rationalize in my mind. "Leaving keys behind hardly makes a man elderly! It could happen to anyone!" I turned and headed back to the truck. I slipped the key into the ignition, but it wouldn't turn. What now? I checked my keys and tried another. Still nothing. That's when I noticed the purple beads hanging from my rearview mirror. I had no purple beads hanging from my rearview mirror. Then, a few other objects came into focus. The car seat in the back seat. Happy Meal toys spread all over the floorboard. A partially eaten doughnut on the dashboard. Faster than you can say ginkgo biloba, I flew out of the alien vehicle. Moments later I was speeding out of the parking lot, relieved to finally be leaving this nightmarish stop in my life. That is when I felt it, deep in the bowels of my stomach: hunger! My stomach growled and churned, and I reached to grab my burrito, only it was nowhere to be found. I swung the truck around, gathered my courage, and strode back into the restaurant one final time. There Elmo stood, draped in youth and black nail polish. All I could think was, "What is the world coming to?" All I could say was, "Did I leave my food and drink in here?" At this point I was ready to ask a Boy Scout to help me back to my vehicle, and then go straight home and apply for Social Security benefits. Elmo had no clue. I walked back out to the truck, and suddenly a young lad came up and tugged on my jeans to get my attention. He was holding up a drink and a bag. His mother explained, "I think you left this in my truck by mistake." I took the food and drink from the little boy and sheepishly apologized. he offered these kind words: "It's OK. My grandfather does stuff like this all the time." All of this is to explain how I got a ticket doing 85 in a 40. Yes, I was racing some punk kid in a Toyota Prius. And no, I told the officer, I'm not too old to be driving this fast. As I walked in the front door, my wife met me halfway down the hall. I handed her a bag of cold food and a $300 speeding ticket. I promptly sat in my rocking chair and covered up my legs with a blanket. The good news was I had successfully found my way home.
