Pastor's Letter

In April 1972 I began a nearly two-year stint as a volunteer office staff worker and summer team leader with Lutheran Youth Alive in Van Nuys, California. I was twenty-one years old at the time. Of all the transitional moments in my life it stands out as being one of the most significant. From my rural upbringing in western Oregon I transitioned to life in a sprawling, fast-paced metropolis. In those days, heavy smog was still an eye-stinging fact of daily life. The excitement of experiencing all kinds of new things was great but after awhile big city life began to feel a bit oppressive. For relief I once rode my bicycle into the Sepulveda Flood Control Basin which had corn fields next to paved streets and sidewalks in a bizarre juxtaposition. I then lay down on the sidewalk and looked heavenward. All I could see then was the sky and the corn field. The city and the smog disappeared. It was a pleasant respite from the urban frenzy surrounding me.

I recall that experience as a kind of metaphor for the spiritual need we all have to find rest in Christ as our Savior. It brings to mind the invitation of Jesus to us sinners, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened ... you will find rest for your souls" (Matthew 11:28-29). The ever present "smog" of sin, the noise and frenzy of human culture at odds with the intentions of God, bring weariness and burdens we can not bear by ourselves. May we all hear and respond in faith to Jesus and experience the rest for our souls He wishes to give us.

ELECTRONIC DIRECTORY

Pastoral Pictorial Directory

The current Conrad Lutheran Parish pictorial directory is from 2013 -- which means it's nine years old and, not to put too fine a point on it, IS NOT CURRENT!

So Pastor Stoopes has come up with a cunning plan to help him and the next pastor to recognize all the fine folks currently members of this parish -- yes, you guessed it, by developing an electronic directory. Faith Weber has kindly volunteered to be the curator for this project.

This will not be a public directory but might morph into one at a later date. This is for the private ministry use of the pastor only.

So here's the deal: please send an email attached photo of yourself or family to: pvlcdirectory@gmail.com . Faith and others will also be taking photos at church in the next few months of folks who prefer that way of being included in the directory.

Call Committee Update

The call committee has been meeting and also communicating through emails and text messages.

At our first meetings, we reviewed survey results and took into consideration what both congregations deem important.

We then drafted information for the call posting. Before posting, we updated our Congregational Profile, response letters and questions for candidates. We didn't reinvent the wheel as we had information from the previous call committee, which we were able to revise and update.

Our open position is posted on the LCMC website as well as others.

We have received a few inquiries and responded to them with more information about the area and sent our parish profile.

We have asked God to prepare the heart of the pastor that will be answering our call and ask that he opens our call committee to hear his voice and receive his guidance throughout this process.

We extend our deepest gratitude to Pastor Stoope for "guiding our flock" during this interim process.

Please pray for our future pastor, the call committee, Pastor Stoope and our congregation as we go through this process. We appreciate your prayers and patience as we continue the call process.

God bless you all,

Kim Hofstad, Call Committee Chairman, Betty Olson, Shauna Ellefsen, Faith Weber, Terry Peters, Bill McLean, and Ken Johnson

GRATEFUL PEOPLE ARE JOYFUL PEOPLE In a 2013 TED Talk, David Steindl-Rast says many people think happiness leads to gratefulness. "Think again," he says. "Is it really the happy people that are grateful? We all know ... people who have everything it [takes] to be happy, and they are not happy, because they want something else or they want more of the same. And we all know people who have lots of misfortune [yet] are deeply happy. ... Why? Because they are grateful. So it is not happiness that makes us grateful. It's gratefulness that makes us happy."

We must be cautious: Depression is a real illness, and therapy or medicine may be necessary to help us enjoy life again. Also, "joy" is perhaps a more fitting word than "happiness"; happiness can be fleeting and superficial, while joy is heart-deep and abiding. In Jesus, even when we're sad or struggling or fearful, we can have joy — the confidence that God holds us in his arms. And for that, we can be grateful. Indeed, Steindl-Rast concludes, "Grateful people are joyful people."

A STAND-UP GUY

During the pandemic, a Maryland man used “dad jokes” to lift neighbors’ spirits. Tom Schruben jotted down a joke-of-the-day on a curbside whiteboard. Hearing people chuckle and chat eased the isolation.

Schruben and his wife, Ann, became intentional about seeking joy after two of their children died. They vowed to “find happiness again” and share it. For Father’s Day last year, Schruben held a Bad Dad Joke contest, donating entry fees to a local charity. Here are a few of his favorites:

- ☺ If two vegans get into an argument, is it still considered a beef?
- ☺ I ordered a chicken and an egg from Amazon. I’ll let you know.
- ☺ What do you call a bear with no teeth? A gummy bear.

CELEBRATING THE CHURCH’S BIRTHDAY

On Pentecost, we remember when the Holy Spirit descended on Jesus’ disciples. As they gathered in Jerusalem 10 days after Jesus’ ascension, they saw tongues of fire, heard rushing wind and began speaking in many languages. Because the disciples could then share the good news with all the pilgrims assembled for the Pentecost festival, the occasion marks the birthday of the Christian church. That day alone, about 3,000 people devoted their lives to Christ. Like the Holy Spirit, Pentecost is important and relevant today. As theologian Henri Nouwen writes, “Without Pentecost the Christ-event — the life, death and resurrection of Jesus — remains imprisoned in history as something to remember, think about and reflect on. The Spirit of Jesus comes to dwell within us, so that we can become the hands of the living Christ here and now.”

GOING THE SECOND MILE In Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount, he teaches, “If anyone forces you to go one mile, go also the second mile” (Matthew 5:41, NRSV). Back then, Jews were subject to Roman rule and often compulsory service. Commoners could be forced to fetch water, carry baggage and perform other menial tasks. So Jesus suggests that rather than complying with gritted teeth and muttered curses, people offer to carry the pack a second mile as well.

These days, the second (or extra) mile denotes going beyond what’s expected or required, whether in effort or kindness. In Going the Second Mile, Mel Blackaby describes the concept as “the difference between living as a good person and enjoying life as a child of God.” He explains, “When you ‘do your best’ for someone, you go the first mile. When God does his best through you, you experience the second mile. This can happen only when you let Christ in you take over and empower you to accomplish what is impossible by your natural abilities. While others see you on the first mile, they see Christ on the second.”

Popcorn POWER

Some popcorn plus a little heat makes a big change.

What you need:

- 2 Tbsp. popcorn kernels
- 2 tsp. oil
- 1 Tbsp. sugar
- Brown paper lunch bag

What you do:

1. Add popcorn kernels, oil and sugar to the bag.
2. Fold the bag's top down about half an inch. Repeat two more times. Gently shake to mix ingredients.
3. Microwave for 1½ or 2 minutes (or use the Popcorn setting). Allow bag to cool before removing and opening it.
4. As you share popcorn with family and friends, discuss the change in the kernels. Read Acts 2 together. What changes did the disciples experience? What was the source of their power?
