Dear Golden West and Pondera Valley Lutheran Church,

Grace and Peace to you from God the Father and Our Lord Jesus Christ

This summer has been far from normal, but as it nears its end I have to say that I am thankful. With COVID-19 slowing the whole world down many of our ministries have been halted or need to be accomplished with innovation in today's context. I am glad that we will be beginning our education programs in September. The youth will return slowly, but sometimes that is true for all of us. With ministries restarting there is a need to finish our Revelation bible study and a request for adult confirmation classes. Many things have continued on amidst all this. As we learn what works and doesn't we will continue to open ministry opportunities further. Many churches are not in this position, and we should remember them.

We know that we cannot predict the future. With a pandemic, protests, election, and worldwide unrest our schedule might change without much warning. Many are still waiting to return to worship with us due to their own health concerns and I look forward to seeing them as soon as you can return. Restarting much of what we had done before may be quite difficult. I pray each of us has the patience and grace to bring each of our brothers and sisters with. Worship will continue as normally as possible and Word and Sacrament will be administered. Please remember that this is a freedom and gift for us, not an obligation and law we are under.

Still this summer a lot of work went on. Most of it occurred online. For the first time I attended the service coordinators meeting. This was supposed to be in St. Charles, IL but due to the virus we all stayed home and used our computers. Attending this meeting, I was able to meet the new LCMC service coordinator, Michael Bradley. We discussed the direction of the LCMC and his vision for our future. I was responsible for giving a report on the NW District, which included news from Springfield and Cove, OR. As a region we are also asking to be given more responsibility over pastoral certification, and planning a regional youth activity for the near future. Also, the group of LCMC MT pastors that meet in Great Falls monthly has been growing and gaining purpose.

With all this still going on I cannot complain much at all. I am blessed. Most of this work has been done from home, while still being able to enjoy the freedoms of being in a small town. I am out and about a bit but for the most part have worked from home in the company of my family. With our baby boy due August 24th, Kori needed help in the hottest part of the season and I was able to be there. Yes, we miss visiting, and have many of you on our mind. At the same time our whole household is ready to welcome our new addition and rest. We still have needs of course. We have asked for an estimate on a housing allowance so that we may begin looking for a larger house. Our car is also small for the five of us so we are looking at our own budget so that we might afford two vehicles. Diapers and wipes were almost gone too, but will begin to arrive again. We appreciate each of the congregations generosity through the years. Thank you.

At the start of the pandemic, the first thing I talked about was the need for each of us to be still. I encouraged each of us to go and find a quiet place to pray. One of my favorite verses says, "Be still, the Lord will fight for you..." (Ex. 14:14) At the end of this summer, I now have my own door opening for this very thing. After our boy is born my family is taking a vacation until Sept. 8th. We will be back in worship Sept. 13th. No matter where my work is there is a need for me to put it down and focus on my family instead. We may stay in Conrad or take a short trip, but are very thankful for being able to do this. It will get me ready for the start of our new year and give me time to discern. I pray that as we are away that all of us are able to take time to hear what God is revealing to us. We will be taking time simply to listen and let God show us where he is calling us. I also pray that we receive support and care after working faithfully through uncertain times so we may continue to faithfully proclaim the Good News of Jesus for the Glory of the Father always.

Pastor Drew Nelson

The PV Council met on July 13th. Pastor shared when he will be gone for the NW District and when their new baby is born. Pulpit supply for those dates have been scheduled. Building & Grounds will need to begin the hiring process for a janitor for the Education building. Pastor has spoken to the radio station about recording when we broadcast the first of each month. They can burn the audio files onto a CD for $10 for anyone who would like to purchase them. (Probably would require advance knowledge of event.) The council, on behalf of the parish, would like to thank Roland & Karen Lee for hosting missionary Abdul and his driving friend, Chris, while they were here. The nominating committee will soon begin looking for volunteers to serve on council. The Education Board is wanting to see what the public schools do and follow their lead in the fall. There will be no August meeting for the council.

The next council meeting will be Monday, September 14th at 6 pm in the Youth Room.

Proverbs 24:30-34 The writer of Proverbs (Solomon) said he was out walking by the field of the lazy, and saw the vineyard of the man who was not thinking when it came to taking care of his field. This man had allowed his field to be overtaken with thorns and weeds. The man had even allowed his fence to be broken down. Solomon said he looked at this field and drew a lesson from it. That lesson was that when men become slack, not taking care of their business, poverty comes on them. This poverty, Solomon said, was like being robbed. And yet the robber was not another, but the man himself through his own lack of action. As Christian stewards, we should take a lesson from this story too. God has given us much, yet if we neglect it, poverty will come. (Poverty in that things can become physically run down.) Church giving can be thought of in the same light. God has given us the responsibility of preaching the Gospel from this church. That responsibility involves the upkeep of our buildings, electrical, telephone, salaries, materials, outreach, and a host of other expenses which must be met each and every week. If we as God's stewards over this church neglect our support, then all of this ministry can come to a halt. However, as we stay faithful in our giving this will never happen, but to the contrary, this church is and will experience prosperity through the diligent care and responsibility of faithful givers like you and I.

Philippians 2:4, NRSV

Permission was given to share portions of the introductory posts from Mike Bradley on Facebook page of Lutheran Congregations in Mission for Christ:

I am absolutely humbled and honored to be extended a call to become the new Service Coordinator for LCMC. And I want to thank Mark Vander Tuig for all he has done for LCMC these past 10 years and the encouragement and help he has been to me already.

My wife, Debi, is a Lutheran pastor's daughter (her Dad was my first mentor) and one of the things modeled for Debi by her Dad and Mom was a life of prayer. Debi loves to pray, and I view prayer as one of my chief responsibilities, and one of the great joys I will seek to practice as Service Coordinator. If there is a particular prayer request you'd like me to begin joining with you in praying for, please drop me a note at safeplacemb@gmail.com. I look forward to meeting you in the future, and partnering with you in the kingdom assignment God has given us in LCMC.

I know most of you don't know me so I'll share a little bit about myself. The first thing you need to know about me is that I love the Lord and am so thankful He sought me out and has made me His child. Next to the Lord, however, the love of my life is Deborah (Debi) Ruth Asper-Bradley.

Debi and I have been married for 42 years, and I definitely over-achieved when I married Deb. She is an amazing woman, mother, grandma (Gigi), and my best friend. She loves the Lord, loves to pray with people and for entire communities, and loves to worship the Lord in song.

We have five children and 3 grandchildren. One son died suddenly and unexpectedly. That's a story for another time which I can share, but for now it's a blessing and a gift of peace to know we will see him again one day. Death took our son, but Jesus took our son from death. Thank you, Jesus!

The time has come – tomorrow (August 1st) will be my first official day as your Incoming Service Coordinator for LCMC. I am humbled and honored to be extended this call by the association and I am looking forward to getting to know you and to work alongside you in the mission that God has given us.

As my first act as Incoming Service Coordinator, I intend to bow my head and fold my hands in prayer before God tomorrow morning. My experience in prayer is that God often brings some things to mind for me to be praying for and about, but that I also often have some specific things already in mind that I want to bring before Him in prayer.

Tomorrow morning (Aug. 1st) I will be praying that God equip and empower us to come together as an association to develop healthy leaders and disciples in the Church and to equip God's people for lives of effective witness and mission in the world.

I will also be praying this: "Lord God, please blow a fresh breath of Your Spirit throughout LCMC that we might increasingly come together as an association to impact people in every sphere and sector of our nation, and overseas, with Your love and Your power. Mobilize us and release us as a people movement to go be the church in existing and creative expressions. Stir us and enable us through the Holy Spirit's empowering presence to declare and demonstrate the good news concerning the kingdom of God, the news that there is a better way of living life here and now, as well as in eternity. I pray this in the name of Your son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen."

God bless you all sisters and brothers. I am looking forward to meeting you, and working alongside of you. And as you continue to so faithfully serve the Lord in these unusual times, may God bless you with an awareness of just how much He loves you.

- Mike Bradley, Incoming LCMC Service Coordinator

WISDOM TREASURE HUNT

In the Bible, Proverbs says to search for wisdom like it was "hidden treasure." Everyone loves a treasure hunt, so invite your family or friends to join you in a search for the wisdom found in Proverbs.

Here's what you'll need:

- 2 sheets of 8-1/2" x11" paper
- 12 pieces of string, yarn or ribbon (12" each)
- pen
- scissors
- hole punch
- Bible

Here's how to play:

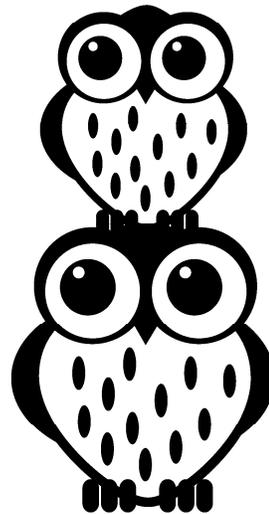

1. Fold each paper in half, in half again, and in half again. You should end up with your paper divided into 8 rectangles.
2. Cut out each rectangle.
3. Use this list to write the name (Proverbs) and the numbers of a chapter and a verse on each rectangle: Proverbs 2:6 / 3:13 / 3:19 / 4:5 / 4:7 / 5:1 / 8:11 / 16:16 / 18:4 / 19:8 / 24:3.
4. Punch a hole in the corner of each rectangle and tie a piece of string, yarn or ribbon through each hole.
5. Choose one person to hide the Proverb tags, tying them to objects inside or outside your house.
6. Send everyone to look for the tags.
7. After all the tags are found, look up the verses to see why we should treasure wisdom.
8. Create your own hunt by searching your Bible for more verses about wisdom.

When God Crosses Our Paths

Pastor and martyr Dietrich Bonhoeffer wrote, "God will be constantly crossing our paths and canceling our plans by sending us people with claims and petitions." Last spring, the whole world had plans canceled, first by Covid-19 and then by God "sending us people with claims and petitions." Some needed prayers for healing or for coping with grief. Medical staff, teachers, pastors and others serving long hours needed support: meals, check-in calls, "thinking of you" cards. Parents working remotely while helping kids with distance-learning needed encouragement. Crucial nonprofit work still required donations.

MANY PARTS ONE BODY!

Through the teaching, support, sacrifice, worship and commitment of the church, utterly ordinary people are enabled to do some rather extraordinary, even heroic acts, not on the basis of their own gifts and abilities, but rather by having a community capable of sustaining Christian virtue. The church enables us to be better people than we could have been if left to our own devices.
—Stanley Hauerwas and William Willimon, Resident Aliens

ALL WORKERS ARE ESSENTIAL!

The concept of vocation, Latin for “to call,” previously referred only to a calling to church work. But then Martin Luther emphasized the importance — and even sanctity — of all types of labors. The reformer pointed out that “God doesn’t need our good works, but our neighbor does.”
RJ Grunewald, in a blog post titled “God Makes Pizza,” describes how this looks today: “God is busy about his work in the midst of your work whether you realize it or not. The laundry, the spreadsheets, the phone calls and the cups of coffee are all deeply spiritual because God is at work in the world. He is serving your family, your coworkers and your community through the work you do. God is at work providing ‘daily bread’ through the work that you do, no matter what that work is.”
