From the Pastor

As you read this, Lord willing, I'll be on vacation. I'm taking a month off to drive my Jeep from Montana to the east coast. I'm billing this as "My Last Paid Vacation." Which is sort of catchy and would make a great book title. As a matter of fact, I'm thinking of self-publishing a book with that as the title - My Last Paid Vacation: Montana to Maryland and Back Again.

But first I have SIX sermons to write and this article to finish. I'm hoping my brain and right hand are up to the strain. I'm a bit stressed and pressed for time to get all my ducks in a row before heading east on Easter Sunday. We all get pressed for time sometimes to get all our work done, don't we?

Our Creator is never pressed for time or stressed out. Is there anything too hard for God to cope with? Not according to the Bible. Consider these passages:

Genesis 18:14 "Is anything too hard for the LORD?" That's the Lord's question to Abraham and Sarah about the promise of Sarah having a son when it seemed impossible.

Jeremiah 32:17 "Ah, Sovereign Lord, You have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for you."

Luke 1:35-37 In this passage, the angel answered Mary's question "How will this be?" Mary is a virgin and can't have a baby on her own. "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, the angel said, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the Holy One to be born will be called the Son of God. Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age and she who was said to be barren is in her sixth month. For nothing is impossible with God."

Mark 10:24-27 Jesus said, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." The disciples were even more amazed, and said to each other, "Who then can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but not with God; all things are possible with God."

I have a wooden wall plaque hanging in the entryway of the parsonage with those words of Jesus engraved on it. It serves to remind me that my life is in the hands of our gracious God who is ready, willing, and able to save me from all that would harm or destroy me. In faith, I can respond as Mary did to the angel's message - "I am the Lord's servant ... may it be to me as you have said."

Dear Friends in Christ, may God's grace be upon us all as we trust ourselves into our Creator's care -- for whom all things are possible.

Pastor Jeff Stoores

Please note: Pastor Jeff will be gone on vacation April 21st - May 24th. If there is an emergency, please call Kim Wiest, 406-450-5821.

Pondera Valley council met on April 7th. Work continues on the sound wiring in the Fellowship Hall, putting in internet boosters, and three TVs have been ordered. (FYI: The tvs are here! Two will go in the sanctuary, one will hang in the FH instead of the one that is there, which will go down to the Youth Room, and the one in the Youth Room will go to the library!) The council reviewed the results of the congregational meeting held April 14, 2024. The Ketterling house was available for purchase. With funds on hand and God's hand of provision in so many ways, the council voted to purchase the Ketterling home for a new parsonage! There was a committee set up to work through the details. More will be coming on this soon. Easter breakfast is planned for 7-9:30 a.m. April 20th. Pastor leaves on his 5 week vacation following worship that day. Four new members will join PVLC on June 1st. A letter was received from Willet offering us to have the stained glass windows inspected for free. It was discussed and decided to give them a call for an appointment. It might be an opportunity to ask some questions about the FH side windows, to see what is involved to make them more vibrant from the sanctuary side.

The next council meeting will be Monday, May 12th at 6:30 p.m. The first 15 minutes will be committees meeting.

NEW PARSONAGE

A special PVLC congregational meeting was held on April 14, 2024 following the worship service. By majority vote the congregation authorized the PVLC Council to purchase a new parsonage, gave them the authority to secure a loan for the purchase of said parsonage and the authority to sell the existing parsonage, called the Montgomery house. Pastor Stoores will be leaving his position of Pastor of PVLC at the end of 2025 and therefore the Call Committee is actively pursuing candidates for his position. In preparation, the Council has been watching for the availability of a suitable house. Recently, it was made known to the PVLC Council that the home of Roman Ketterling and the late Judy Ketterling, PVLC long time members, was available for purchase. Council members viewed the house by invitation of Karla Breeding, their daughter who is also a member. Karla graciously availed herself for multiple showings of the home and answered all questions regarding the house and lot which were posed to her by Council members. Impressed with the property and satisfied with the favorable terms of purchase, the Council voted at its April 7, 2025 meeting to purchase the Ketterling home for a new parsonage. A committee which included PVLC Treasurer, Lyn Carlson, was established to work through the details of said purchase.

Susan Gustafson, PVLC Council President

HE ASCENDED INTO HEAVEN

During his earthly ministry, Jesus could be physically present in only one place at any given time. “Only those could speak to him who came to where he was,” explained Archbishop William Temple. “If he was in Galilee, people could not find him in Jerusalem; if he was in Jerusalem, they could not find him in Galilee” (from Readings in St. John’s Gospel).

Spiritually speaking, Christ’s Ascension means he is with us wherever we find ourselves. Christ desires to be present with us everywhere we go. His presence is universal. He is here now. “Believed in throughout the world, taken up in glory” (1 Timothy 3:16, NRSV) — that is what the Ascension affirms.

A careful man I ought to be;
a little fellow follows me;
I do not dare to go astray, for fear he’ll go the self-same way.

I cannot once escape his eyes;
whate’er he sees me do, he tries —

Like me, he says, he’s going to be, the little chap who follows
me.

He thinks that I am good and fine, believes in every word of mine:
The base in me he must not see, the little chap who follows
me.

I must remember as I go,
through summer’s sun and
winter’s snow,
I’m building for the years to be, for a little fellow follows
me.

Prayers to Prepare for Worship

- ✠ “Weeping may stay for the night, but rejoicing comes in the morning” (Psalm 30:5, NIV). Whatever emotion each of us is feeling right now, may this time of worship grant nourishment. Amen.
- ✠ Thank you, God, for the special women in my life [mom, grandmas, aunts, nieces, friends, wife, daughters]. I pray for their well-being.
- ✠ Jesus, you are the stable rock on which I stand, the warm water in which I float peacefully, the fragrant air that energizes my being. In you I rest and am strengthened for faithful living.
- ✠ Jesus says: “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid” (John 14:27, NRSV).
- ✠ “And what is so rare as a day in June?” (J.R. Lowell). Thank you, God, for this beautiful first day of the first month of summer.
- ✠ “How many are your works, Lord! In wisdom you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures” (Psalm 104:24, NIV). I worship and praise you, O God!
- ✠ Thank you, God, for the special men in my life [dad, grandpas, uncles, nephews, friends, husband, sons]. I pray for their well-being.
- ✠ In 1 Kings 19, when Elijah was at his wits’ end, God gave him rest and nourishment. May each of us here today be nourished and rejuvenated in God’s love.
- ✠ The seeds of your good fruit are planted in us, loving God. Water us today so we sprout with patience, kindness, generosity, self-control and, above all, love (Galatians 5:22-23).
