From the Pastor

January is upon us once again. 2026 has that new car smell. The days get gradually longer. What is that feeling? Hope. To one extent or another we begin the calendar year hopeful. After all unto us is born a savior. The hopeful Christmas message and hymns are still ringing in our ears. We start to believe that we can manufacture for ourselves a new beginning. We will eat healthy. We will exercise. We will lose weight. We will be more patient with our neighbors. We will call our loved ones more frequently. We will go to church every Sunday. Some of us even formalize these with a title: New Year's Resolution. Some statistics show that 40% of us will make a New Year's resolution. Statistics also show that by the second week in February 90% of us will have failed. Only 8-9% will go on to keep our resolution for the entire year.

Psychologists offer explanations for why our resolutions fail. We give up too easily. Get back in the saddle, psychology says. We think too big. Our resolution is wildly ambitious when it should be focused on smaller achievable, incremental goals. We're too vague. We settle for resolutions without a plan. The key is to set specific and achievable goals that you can measure your progress against," the psychologist says, "Then, stick to them."

Psychology comes from the word psyche, which itself means the human mind, soul, or spirit. Since I am in the human soul and spirit business, I would offer a different explanation: Our resolutions sow to our flesh (Gal 6). Most people think of sowing to the flesh as "bad habits" like drinking, smoking, gluttony, sexual excess. But, aren't these the very things we are trying to give up? How can you say, Pastor, that my resolution to give up sowing to the flesh is sowing to the flesh? I can because the whole nasty resolution business is about placing confidence in yourself. If you can just make the goal achievable, the diet palatable you will succeed. If you can just forgive yourself of your slip ups and give yourself positive affirmations you will progress in the transformation you seek. This is all supreme confidence in self and the law. The problem with the diet isn't that it is law, it just that we haven't found the right law, the one we can follow. We put our flesh up against the law and 90% of us fail and end up wallowing in shame at our weakness.

In the same chapter where discussion of sowing to the flesh occurs Paul discusses where we should and should not place our hope. He talks of circumcision, but I have rewritten it with a different law, New Year's resolutions. "Those who want to impress people by means of the flesh are trying to compel you to make resolutions.. The only reason they do this is to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ. Not even those who make resolutions keep them, yet they want you to make resolutions that they may boast about your achievements in the flesh. May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. Neither keeping New Year's resolutions nor breaking them means anything; what counts is the new creation. In Second Corinthians he said it this way, "if anyone is in Christ that person is a new creation." Hope for a new you does not rest on the scales, but is found in Christ Alone.

— Pastor Jeff

Are treasures without price,
And through the gateway of the heart
They lead to paradise.

When All Else Fails—God Reigns

When we deliberate, God reigns;
 When we decide wisely, God reigns;
 When we decide foolishly, God reigns;
 When we serve God in humble loyalty,
 God reigns;
 When we serve God self-assertively,
 God reigns;
 When we rebel and seek to withhold our service, God reigns —
 The Alpha and the Omega, which is,
 and which was and which is to come, the Almighty.

— William Temple at the Lamberth Conference, 1930

Precious Lord, Take My Hand

Thomas Dorsey, a jazz musician from Atlanta, made a bold decision in 1926 to leave behind secular music and devote his talent to writing songs for the Lord. But following that call wasn't easy. During the Great Depression, many church leaders criticized his soulful gospel style, calling it "the devil's music." Dorsey later joked, "I got kicked out of some of the best churches in the land."

Then, in 1932, tragedy struck. While in St. Louis for a revival, he received a telegram that his wife had died suddenly during childbirth. His faith was shaken to the core, and grief nearly silenced him. Yet in his deepest sorrow, Dorsey turned back to what he knew best — music. Out of that heartbreak came one of the most beloved hymns of all time:

*"Precious Lord, take my hand,
Lead me on, let me stand.
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn..."*

Dorsey's song reminds us that even in our valleys, God is near — guiding us, strengthening us, and using our pain to comfort others who walk the same road.

Quiet us LORD...

- ✝ Renewing God, as we step into a new year, quiet our hearts and help us listen for your voice. May this time of worship set our direction and renew our hope in you.
- ✝ Light of the world, shine in our hearts today. As the Magi once followed your star, lead us closer to you and guide our steps in the year ahead.
- ✝ Faithful God, you have been our help in the past and our strength for today. Teach us to trust your goodness and follow your ways in every season of life.
- ✝ Creator of all life, each day is a gift from you. Open our eyes to your presence and open our hands to serve others with joy and love.
- ✝ Lord, remind us that every new beginning starts with your grace. Renew our faith, restore our peace, and help us live as your people of light and hope.
