NAVAL ORDER OF THE UNITED STATES NEW YORK COMMANDERY

Katherine Harvey, PhD

Dr. Katherine “Kitty” Harvey was a scholar of the Middle East as well as a Navy veteran. She completed her PhD in Middle Eastern Studies at King’s College London, and a book based on her dissertation, A Self-Fulfilling Prophecy: The Saudi Struggle for Iraq, was published in the UK by Hurst in 2021 and in the U.S. by Oxford University Press in 2022. The book explores relations between Saudi Arabia and Iraq in the years following the 2003 invasion of Iraq. Her writing on the Middle East has also appeared in the Washington Post, Lawfare, Brookings Order from Chaos, and other publications.

In the Navy, Dr. Harvey served as an intelligence officer with tours in the CENTCOM, EUCOM, and AFRICOM areas of responsibility, as well as aboard the amphibious assault ship, USS Wasp (LHD-1). While stationed at Fifth Fleet in Bahrain during the 2006 Lebanon war, she supported Joint Task Force Lebanon, which oversaw humanitarian assistance efforts, primarily executing a non-evacuation operation of some 15,000 American citizens from that country.

Dr. Harvey holds a BA magna cum laude in History and International Studies from Yale and an MA with honors in International Relations and International Economics, with a concentration in Strategic Studies, from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies. At SAIS, she was a research assistant to Robert E. Osgood Professor Eliot A. Cohen. She is also now a member of the SAIS Board of Advisors, as well as a participant in the Johns Hopkins Leadership Fellows program. Dr. Harvey is currently residing in Rye, New York.
