My Time in the US Merchant Marine: Forty Years of Change and Innovation with Captain Robert Anderson

SeaLand Producer

Captain Robert N. Anderson, a veteran of the merchant marine for over 40 years, has witnessed the industry evolve significantly, including the introduction of containerization and GPS navigation, as well as a trend towards larger ships with smaller crews.

Get unique insights into these developments and their impact on the industry's future from one of the most experienced professionals in the field.

NAVAL ORDER OF THE UNITED STATES NEW YORK COMMANDERY

Captain Robert N. Anderson

Captain Robert N. Anderson is an accomplished mariner, graduating with honors from the United States Merchant Marine Academy in 1975. With a distinguished career at sea, he served in various roles, notably as a master and chief officer. He was employed by SeaLand Service, with his first command as master aboard the SeaLand Crusader in 1999 and as permanent chief officer aboard the SeaLand Shining Star in 1992. He has also worked with various other companies, such as American President Lines, Puerto Rico Marine Management, Trailer Marine Transport, Trinidad Tankers, and SeaLand Service, Inc. Captain Anderson was honorably discharged from the U.S. Naval Reserve in 1988 with the rank of Lieutenant and currently imparts his maritime expertise to students as an adjunct professor at SUNY Maritime College.
