

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Dear Parishioners,

This coming Thursday, November 26, is Thanksgiving Day. Like just about everything else this year, Thanksgiving will be different. Many of us won't be able to gather with our loved ones as we have done in past years, and as we will, God willing, in years to come. One thing that hasn't changed, however, and never will, is that we are tremendously blessed and need to thank the One who is the source of all blessings. For many of us, Thanksgiving has become a day to overeat (been there, done that), watch football, and shop for Christmas sales. We have lost the deeper significance of the holiday which is to thank God for the tremendous blessings He has bestowed upon us as individuals, as families, and as a country. Given the tremendous Cross we have been asked to carry this year, I think it is more important than ever to focus on the Blessings and Graces in our lives and to offer Thanks to God for His love and generosity to us. In our ever increasing secular society, we have an opportunity to give witness to others of the true nature of this day and of the True Nature of the God that so many deny.

We can, and should, be offering prayers of Thanksgiving in our homes, but we also have the opportunity to come together and offer the Great Prayer of Thanksgiving, the Eucharist together on Thanksgiving Day. As I mentioned last week, the Mass in English will be at 9:00 at St. John the Baptist / Holy Trinity; the Mass in Vietnamese will be at 9:30 at Our Lady of Pompei/St. Peter. Please join us in person, if possible, or join us remotely via Facebook: the Mass in English will be live-streamed on the Our Lady of Pompei-St. Peter Facebook page. As we thank God that day for the many Blessings He has bestowed on us, let us not forget to thank Him for the Gift of Faith which has strengthened us during this most difficult of years.

Please know that I thank Him each day for the gift of such wonderful parishioners. You are always in my prayers; please keep me in yours.

In Christ,
Fr. Caruso

Reservations for Christmas

Christmas is four weeks away and in this year in which nothing is "normal", it's not too early to begin to plan for a Christmas that is going to be very different from what we are used to. With the restrictions still in place to facilitate social distancing in church, we will not be able to accommodate the normal size congregations that usually join us at Christmas. In order to be able to seat as many people as possible, and to allow everybody an opportunity to reserve a seat, we will be using the following guidelines:

1. You can call to reserve a seat beginning Monday, November 30th at 9:00 am.
2. You will call the Parish Office of the Church where the Mass is being celebrated.
3. You will need to provide the names and contact information of all members in your group that will be attending Mass.
4. We will assign you a seat in advance. This assignment will be based on the best use of the available seating in order to accommodate the most people. It cannot be based on your preference. We ask for your understanding.
5. If all available seating is assigned before Christmas, only those who signed up in advance will be admitted into the Church for Mass.

Family Perspective

Families feed the hungry, give drinks to thirsty toddlers and welcome strangers and even estranged relatives into our homes. We clothe children and visit family members who are sick and imprisoned. The routine actions of family life are religious and priestly for we make Christ present in what we do. Family life is Beatitude life.

Respect for Human Life: The Church...is called to proclaim the gift of life, to serve life and to promote a culture of life. This is the message of hope we are called to proclaim and embody in a world where self-centeredness, greed, violence and cynicism so often seem to shock the fragile growth of grace in people's hearts.
