

Citrus Valley Christian Academy PSP High School Handbook

1. Introduction

Welcome to Citrus Valley Christian Academy! This handbook outlines our expectations, policies, and requirements for high school students enrolled in our Private School Satellite Program (PSP). We are committed to supporting your educational journey with structure, guidance, and Christian values.

2. Mission Statement:

To come alongside and support families in the educating and sanctification of their children in order to raise godly young men and women to defend and share the gospel and to reach the world for Christ.

3. Code of Conduct

Students are expected to:

- Respect all staff, parents, and fellow students.
- Maintain a Christlike attitude in word and action.
- Use technology responsibly.
- Abstain from cheating, plagiarism, bullying, or inappropriate behavior.

4. Curriculum Guidelines

- Curriculum choices must meet academic standards.
- Students may use a combination of parent-taught, online, co-op, AP, or DE courses.
- High school courses must meet minimum instructional hours and cover core content.

5. Parent Responsibilities

- Ensure academic progress and submit required documentation.
- Communicate with CVCA staff about curriculum changes or academic concerns.
- Attend scheduled parent meetings and support school events when possible.
- Families are encouraged to check the community college requirements for age/grade for enrollment.
