GANDHIWADI SIDDHANT

VOLUME III

PREFACE

The victorious western development, globalization, and modern urbanization have resulted in severe crime, violence, and inequity issues. These are the factors that affect the community growth as well as the nation's growth. It is essential to create awareness among the community's people to perceive what is right and thereby to follow the path of righteousness. We should promote the development of rural areas in tune with the Gandhian vision of self-sufficiency.

Centre for Fostering Social Responsibility (CFSR) at Gayatri Vidya Parishad College of Engineering (Autonomous) has taken an initiative to educate Gandhiji's thoughts and principles on educational and community-level. Hence, the event 'Gandhiwadi Siddhant' is implemented through six volumes. Each volume primarily consists of a quote from Mahatma Gandhi and a backdrop of the quote with reference to the book/newsletter/article along with the author. The writer who has presented the draft narrates his perspective on how it is implemented in life so that people can learn, relate and adapt. This will provoke introspective thoughts and instill the zeal to lead a better way of living.

VOLUME III

“A person may be smaller in success than in defeat; it depends on what he is trying to do.”

- Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi

HISTORY BEHIND:

This quotation was taken from May 29, 1924, issue of Young India article “Hindu-Muslim Tension. Its cause and cure” in which Gandhiji states about the relations between Hindus and Muslims and he had put the cure saying how he believed in human nature.

MY VIEW:

The majority of us have excellent intentions as seedlings. Developing and nurturing such seeds into real action is complex, and most people never put in the effort. However, if a person is serious about being outstanding and truly successful, he must be willing to go against nature consistently. In my opinion, a person should value whatever progress you make in your life, no matter how small or insignificant you believe it is. Because achieving huge goals is essentially the same as performing a series of modest goals repeatedly.

Small ambitions can also be unsuccessful at times. The wisdom of learning from failure is that when we recognise the value of reaching small goals, motivating ourselves to accomplish some tremendous things in the long haul. Accepting your failures in your journey and learning from them is a significant step toward success. Hence, people don't end up being successful quickly. People gain valuable experience that helps them achieve better from every failure. At some part, even I failed too. This suggests I'm still not good enough for something or somewhere. We will be one step closer to success if we can identify that gap and close it.

QUOTATION:

“A person may be smaller in success than in defeat; it depends on what he is trying to do.”

- Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi

REFLECTION:

- Today's society is obsessed with success and achievement, and failure is not part of the equation. Failure and making mistakes are hidden away or seen as a human weakness.
- Just because you fail once doesn't mean you're going to fail at everything. Keep trying.
- This quote convinced me to embrace my failures because, with the right attitude and a willingness to learn from mistakes, you are guaranteed a lifetime of success.
