

Get To Know My Family Member:

1.) What is your favorite thing about Salt Creek?

Patrick & Tamie McBride: "As a person, I grew up 200 yards down the street and spent a considerable amount of time at the church or playing basketball at the court behind the church so it feels like home. As parents of two wonderful children, One of which is special needs, we worry if the world is going to love, accept, and make room for him. Those are three things the people of salt Creek are great at loving, caring, and making room."
Lily Maddox: "The kind people"

2.) What is your favorite Bible verse?

Patrick & Tamie McBride: "Isaiah 41:10 – Fear not, for I am with you; be not, dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand."
Lily Maddox: "Luke"

3.) What would you do today if you knew Jesus was coming back in 30 days?

Patrick & Tamie McBride: "Rejoice, make a list of questions to ask him, make sure all we come across know Jesus, as their Lord and Savior."
Lily Maddox: "I would read all of the Bible verse and be ready for his arrival."

4.) What are you most looking forward to about Heaven?

Patrick & Tamie McBride: "Seeing and loving on loved ones."
Lily Maddox: "Seeing my papa, my bunny, Jesus, and God"

5.) If you had to fight satan with a water pistol, who from the Bible other than Jesus would you take with you?

Patrick & Tamie McBride: "Epaphroditus (queue joyous sounds from Dalton) because of his love for others. Above himself, something we could all aspire to be."
Lily Maddox: "David"

Oh, what enlightenment, what joys, what consolation, what delight of heart is experienced by that man who has learned to feed on Jesus, and on Jesus alone. Yet the realization that we have of Christ’s preciousness is, in this life, imperfect at best. As an old writer says, “’Tis but a taste!” We have tasted “that the LORD is good,”¹ but we do not yet know how good and gracious He is, although what we know of His sweetness makes us long for more.

We have enjoyed the first fruits of the Spirit, and they have set us hungering and thirsting for the fullness of the heavenly vintage. We groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption. Here we are like Israel in the wilderness, who had but one cluster from the vine; there we shall be in the vineyard. Here we see the manna falling small, like coriander seed; but there shall we eat the bread of heaven and the old corn of the kingdom. We are but beginners now in spiritual education, for although we have learned the first letters of the alphabet, we cannot read words yet, much less can we put sentences together.

But as one says, “He that has been in heaven but five minutes knows more than the general assembly of divines on earth.” We have many unfulfilled desires at present, but soon every wish shall be satisfied, and all our powers shall find the sweetest employment in that eternal world of joy.

O Christian, anticipate heaven for a few years. Within a very little time you will be rid of all your trials and your troubles. Your eyes now suffused with tears shall weep no longer. You will gaze in ineffable rapture upon the splendor of Him who sits upon the throne. Better still, you shall sit upon His throne. The triumph of His glory shall be shared by you; His crown, His joy, His paradise—these will be yours, and you will be co-heir with Him who is the heir of all things. (Excerpts taken from Morning and Evening, written by Charles H. Spurgeon)
