Avanish Trivedi's Calcutta watercolours are truly a walk down nostalgia lane. Through the delicate and expressive medium of watercolour, the artist manages to capture and celebrate both the essence of Kolkata today and the spirit of a Calcutta that is no more. Be it a historic corner building, a landmark, a feature or a person, Trivedi manages to convey a sense of timelessness. Making us wonder if this is a page from an old art diary, or a click of the hustling bustling city of joy in its current avatar.

From the grandeur of its colonial architecture to busy daytime street scenes, these artworks encapsulate the diverse emotions associated with the city. Trivedi's choice of medium lends fluidity and luminosity to the works, reflecting the ever-changing nature of Calcutta's landscape and the ephemeral beauty of its special "moments".

A self-taught artist who works in the corporate sector, Avanish Trivedi began painting as a child, and then honed his skills 22 years later under the mentorship of Shri Jiban Biswas at the Birla Academy. He chose the challenging medium of watercolour painting and with his innate skills, perseverance and love for the city, he soon became known as the Calcutta watercolour artist. His signature works of the city especially the older quarters where he grew up, are with collectors in over 22 countries. Proof that good art transcends the boundaries of country and culture.

Trivedi has exhibited widely all over India, and was invited in 2022-2023 to the California Bay Area where he was warmly received by the Bengali NRI community. Tejas Gallery is proud to partner with him in this, his third show of the series "Calcutta Nostalgia."
