

A letter from Lemons Farm Equipment re: COVID-19

First and foremost, our thoughts and prayers go out to each and every one of you who is dealing with uncertainty that the COVID-19 virus has created in all our lives. We pray for compassion, reason and hope as we work together to get through this challenging situation.

As we work through the impact of COVID-19, we want to assure you that Lemons Farm Equipment's absolute priority is the health and safety of our customers, employees and partners. We understand your concerns during this uncertain time and are internally taking every precautionary step necessary to ensure that we continue to deliver the highest-quality products and services to our customers while keeping all those involved safe.

While we collectively work through the challenges that this outbreak presents, we have every confidence that, by following the steps presented by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and government officials, things will return to normal in time.

We continue to closely monitor developments with COVID-19 and will keep you informed should anything change that would impact you as part of our valued Lemons Farm Equipment family.

These are trying times for us all. Please have extra patience and compassion for those around you. We are all dealing with a lot of extra stress. Together—with thoughtfulness, kindness and understanding—we will make it through this time and come out stronger on the other end.
