

EQUESTRIAN FEDERATION OF SINGAPORE

EQUESTRIAN SG LEAGUE 2026

RULES & REGULATIONS

(updates effective 20.03.2026)

SECTION 1:

OBJECTIVES

The Equestrian SG League is a ranking system where athletes score points based on a combination of result and place depending on the level of the competition in which the result is achieved. The rankings and points are calculated across sanctioned competitions in a calendar year.

The Equestrian League SG sets out to

- Identify and track athlete performance and development
- Motivate athletes across levels to consolidate and improve performance
- Incentivise athletes to strategise and commit to their annual sporting goals

GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

1. Competitions are organised under Federation Equestre Internationale (FEI) and Equestrian Australia (EA) rules and rules as laid out in the Competition Schedule, unless superseded by the rules in the respective sections below.
2. All athletes are required to be registered under the Registry of Equestrian Athletes & Officials (REAO) to compete under the EA & FEI rules at Equestrian Federation of Singapore (EFS) sanctioned competitions.
3. League Points are applicable to the following categories and classes:

DRESSAGE	SHOW JUMPING

Preliminary (Open) category refers to Preliminary tests in sanctioned competitions excluding restricted classes (which are only open to rider/horse combinations who have not achieved the minimum of 63% in Preliminary classes in sanctioned competitions).

4. All Dressage competitions organised are to offer Preliminary (Restricted) for all the Preliminary classes in the Schedule. .
5. School horses may only compete in up to three (3) low level classes (Dressage - Novice, Showjumping - Below 90cm).

ELIGIBILITY

6. Riders need to compete in a minimum of eight (8) shows of which two (2) have to be 'away shows'. An "away" show is determined on the basis of where the horse is stabled.
7. A rider can ride any number of horses in the same or different categories in the League.
8. All riding instructors (full-time or part-time) will not be eligible to receive the 'School Rider of the Year' award. The award will be presented to the next eligible rider.
9. Each rider/horse combination is only eligible for one award category in each discipline. Where a rider/horse combination accumulates the highest number of points in more than one category in each discipline, that rider/horse combination will only be eligible to win the highest category. The award for the lower category will be awarded to the next rider in that category with the highest number of points. All riders are required to meet the minimum criteria of the League.

SECTION 2:

POINTS & AWARDS

1. The top 10 results of a rider/horse combination in each award category set out in Table 1 of Section 2 will be aggregated to determine the winner of that award category.
