

Architectural elevation drawing of a row of seven houses, labeled P.56 to P.32 from left to right. The houses are two stories high with red brick facades and dark roofs. P.56 and P.55 are on the left, followed by P.54, P.53, P.52, P.33, and P.32 on the right. The drawing includes trees, birds, and a ground line with a grey base. A vertical line separates the left and right groups of houses.

A diagram of a 10 m long horizontal bar. To the left of the bar is a north arrow pointing upwards, labeled 'N'. Above the bar, there are numerical markers '0', '5', and '10 m' indicating the scale.