Ashland Grizzlies win giant slaloms

MT. ASHLAND — After a year off of local skiing because of a lack of snow, the Adroit Construction high school races debuted this season with the boys and girls giant slaloms Friday at Mt. Ashland Ski Area.

Ashland led the way, with winners in both the boys and girls divisions.

Chase Tiffany captured the boys race with runs of 30.33 and 30.41 seconds for a combined time of 1:00.7. North Medford's Tanner and Tucker Houck were second and third, respectively.

In the girls races, Ashland's Kali de Saint Phail won with an overall time of 1:05.7. Her runs were 33.21 and 32.46. Crater's Gracen Hokanson was second and Ashland's Kariana Austobo was third.

The competition continues today with the slalom races.
