Mike Ruckhaus chats with Rick and Nancy Offerson

Many reunionees missed Wes Isenhardt, left, who arrived Sunday afternoon. Joe Guetlein greets him here.

We Meet
Again

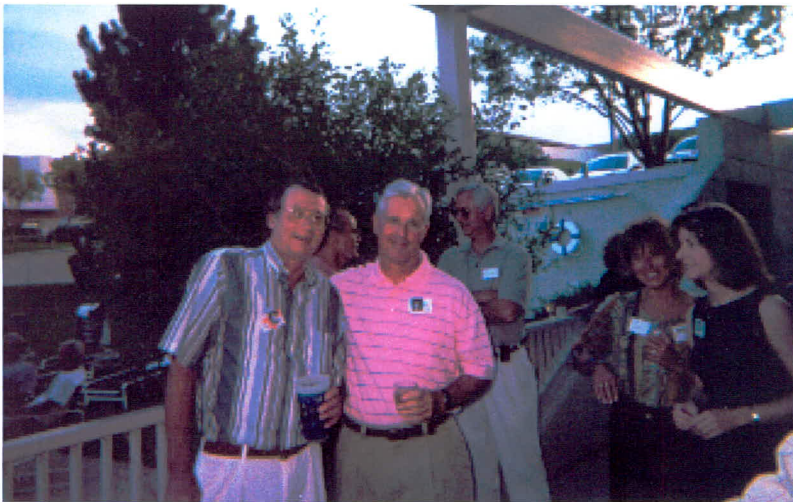

Dennis Sebern and Mike Ruckhaus, among others

And Finally ...

The sins of the father and all that good stuff -- it really does come true. How many times did our mothers tell us that we'd understand, someday, the grief we caused them? ... but only when we had children of our own. Sho' nuf, at right, members of Lakewood's constabulary (that's the police, folks) walk away after questioning a couple of youthful offspring who had strayed a few hundred feet from the site of the AHS-71 picnic. Names of the youths questions is withheld, due to their tender age, and because we know their own will get them back in spades before another three decades has passed.

Jerry Donner said posing for this photo with Ken Brown was the biggest honor he'd have for ... oh, another two days or so, when Jerry greeted President Bush up at Estes Park. The president was visiting the Boy Scout summer camp Jerry runs. Ken, well he just got to sit home with a TV dinner and watch it all on the 10 o'clock news ...

30 years later, and still most photogenic. Can anyone honestly say they wouldn't recognize these two instantly - even on a crowded street? For those of you sleeping all the way from 1968 through 1971, it's Debi Pidek Vane and Ronnie Burton Lockaby.
