

“RESURRECTION”

1 Cor 15:12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: 14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. KJV

NT:386 anastasis (an-as'-tas-is); from NT:450; a standing up again, i.e. (literally) a resurrection from death (individual, genitive case or by implication [its author]), or (figuratively) a (moral) recovery (of spiritual truth): raised to life again, resurrection, rise from the dead, that should rise, rising again.

NT:386 anastasis--1) a raising up, a rising (for example, from a seat) 2) a rising from the dead a) that of Christ b) that of all men at the end of this present age c) the resurrection of certain ones in history who were restored to life (Heb 11:35)

Webster's

Resurrection; A rising again; chiefly, the revival of the dead of the human race, or their return from the grave, particularly at the general judgment. By the resurrection of Christ we have assurance of, in the resurrection, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage. Matt 22

New Schaff-Herzog

Resurrection of the dead: The Christian hope of a renewal of life after death was to a certain extent anticipated by the expectation of redemption current among the Jews basis of the before the time of Christ; but it's real doctrine. Basis is found in the teaching of Christ and in his own resurrection,

The new testament writers accordingly have no doubt of the certainty of a future resurrection. The epistle to the Hebrews enumerates it among the first principles of Christ.

All the dead in rasing again experience the power of God, but in the case of the ungodly, this is a purely external operation.

John 11:24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. 25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: 26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? KJV

Matt 22:30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. 31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. KJV

1 Corinthians 15:3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; 4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: KJV
