Bible Studies / Small Groups

X'ianity: Christianity 101 | Sundays at 10:00 a.m. in the Asbury Library. Interested in attending the Contemporary Service and looking for a Sunday School class? Join this class, Christianity 101, a welcoming discussion of the foundations of the Christian faith. Whether you're new to Christianity, exploring your faith, or simply looking to connect with others, everyone is welcome.

Foundations: A New Member Class | Sunday at 6:00 p.m. in the Asbury Library. Join us for a 7-week study to explore our Methodist heritage, Wesleyan tradition, and what it means to be part of Asbury UMC. (Pastor Chase). Class reconvenes tonight, Sunday, November 8, 2026 @ 6:00 p.m. in the library.

The Bible Told Them So | Join Rev. Sharon Bowers for an 8-week study exploring faith, history, and our call to live as compassionate witnesses. The study meets Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m. in the La Rue Room. Books are available in the church office; only four spots remain. Please stop by the office to reserve your spot and pick up a book. All are welcome—there is a place for you! The study will also feature a special lecture by Dr. Jamal Hopkins, a professor at Baylor University, on The Noahic Curse.

Liturgy for Worship

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Universal

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.
Praise him all creatures here below. Praise him above ye heavenly host.
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Prayer of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

Liturgist: God, we are reminded that we have not always used what you have given us to bring you glory.

People: Gracious God, forgive us where we have fallen short of your glory.

Liturgist: Lord, teach us to be obedient and not bury the gifts and opportunities you have given us because we are afraid.

People: Gracious God, give us a holy boldness to see your call as an opportunity instead of an excuse.

Liturgist: Teach us not to compare what is in our hands with others and to use faithfully what God has entrusted to us.

People: Gracious God, forgive us and let us work while it is day, for the night is coming.

Liturgist: Help us to understand the need to love others, grow in faith, and reach out to the least, the last, and the lost.

People: Gracious God, forgive us when & where we have ignored the cry of the needy.

All: Loving God, show us your glory. Reveal your perfect will for our lives. Give us an obedient spirit so that we can use what you have given us faithfully. Take away our fear and excuses and give us joy, unspeakable joy, full of your glory. May we hear the words, Well Done thy good and faithful servant! Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pastoral Blessing

May you always use the gifts that you have been given to bring God glory. Remember that you have time, talent, and treasure to be used with purpose in mind. Never bury what God has placed in your hands.

May you have the faith to believe, the courage to obey, and the willingness to serve even when life becomes difficult.

May the joy of the Lord strengthen you to do what God has called you to do. May you continue to move in the direction of goodness, mercy, and love living holy so that when the Master returns, you will be found faithful. In the name of Jesus. Amen.

Volunteer Signup Sheet

I am interested in volunteering as an overnight monitor for the Winter Warming Shelter, which will be operated between December 1 and March 1 at Asbury's Fellowship Hall.

The shelter will be open any night the temperature drops below 32 degrees. The volunteer monitors serve a 12-hour shift from 7:30 pm to 7:30 am. I am willing to serve one or possibly more nights.

I cannot be available on any of the following nights:

- o _____
- o _____
- o _____
- o _____

Thank you for considering being part of this much-needed outreach to our unhoused neighbors.

Winter Warming Shelter – Asbury UMC and CANUP

Asbury UMC and CANUP (pronounced canopy) (Coalition Assisting the Needs of Unhoused People) have partnered in offering this year's Winter Warming Shelter (WWS). Asbury's fellowship hall will be the site of the shelter; CANUP will be coordinating and operating the shelter. The shelter will be open any night the temperature is 32 degrees or below from December 1 through March 1. The shelter opens at 7:30 pm and closes at 7:30 am.

The shelter is "staffed" each night by two adult volunteers – one male and one female. The volunteers "stand watch" for the twelve hours. These volunteers are being recruited from CANUP, Asbury, and many churches in our community. Volunteer Training will be on Tuesday, November 17th. Volunteers must participate in one of the two training sessions at 2:00-4:30 OR 5:30-8:00. A meal will be provided between the two sessions (4:30-5:30), and volunteers are encouraged to participate in the meal to get to know others participating in this ministry.

If you are interested in serving as a WWS volunteer monitor, please complete the form on the back of this sheet and place it in today's offering plate. You will receive a return phone call from one of the following: Art Masker (423-416-7400), Kevin James (423-470-2319), or Jim Bare (CANUP Operations Manager: 423-578-0834).
