

An Invitation for Unity and Hope

Inspired by the Zacchaeus Project Class at First Presbyterian and the words of Eleanor Roosevelt, "It's better to light a candle than to curse the darkness," a group of friends and neighbors are taking a simple, positive step for unity and hope.

Each Sunday evening at 6:00 p.m., participants gather in the upper parking lot at Walter's State and walk together along Main Street to Reformation Lutheran and back, carrying battery-powered candles. The walk lasts approximately 45 minutes, and candles are available for those who need one.

This weekly walk is open to all and serves as a peaceful witness for unity and hope, with the goal of encouraging understanding and changing hearts near and far.

If the weather is such that it would be unsafe, we will not be walking. Also, we have several folks driving along with us to assist anyone who feels that they need a ride rather than walking.

Liturgy For Worship

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
    born of the Virgin Mary,
    suffered under Pontius Pilate,
    was crucified, dead, and buried;*
the third day he rose from the dead;
    he ascended into heaven,

and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic** church,
the communion of saints,
    the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
    and the life everlasting.

Amen.

**Universal

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.
    Praise him all creatures here below,
    Praise him above the heavenly host.
    Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
        Amen.

Committee Spotlight

Asbury Child Enrichment Center

The Asbury Child Enrichment Center (ACEC) is a vital ministry and community outreach of Asbury United Methodist Church, committed to nurturing children academically, socially, and spiritually in a safe and loving environment.

Under the leadership of Committee Chair Marcia Parsons, ACEC is guided by a clear and hopeful vision to reach full enrollment capacity within the next year, strengthening both its sustainability and its impact on families in the community.

This vision is supported by a dedicated staff under the Direction of Cassidy Inscore, who are encouraged, resourced, and valued as essential partners in the Center's success.

Central to ACEC's mission is weekly chapel, which provides age-appropriate spiritual formation, grounding children in faith, values, and a sense of God's love from their earliest years.

Prayer of Confession

Liturgist:

Merciful God, we come before You acknowledging that we are prone not to choose joy in difficult circumstances.

Liturgist:

We confess that when midnight comes, we often choose fear over faith, silence over praise, and despair over hope.

Liturgist:

Create in us clean hearts, O God.
Restore to us the joy of Your salvation.

People:

Forgiving God, help us make better choices. Give us a grateful heart.

People:

Forgive us, O God, for the times we let the sounds of midnight silence us and hear fear speak louder than Your promises.

People:

Teach us to choose joy. Teach us to choose praise. Teach us to trust You even when we cannot see our way clear.

All:

We place our hope in You, O God, for we will yet praise You – our Savior and our Deliverer.

Amen.

Pastoral Blessing

Go now in the strength of midnight joy. May the God who meets you in the dark remind you that trouble don't last always.

When you feel like you are bound by chains of fear, doubt and regret, may you still choose praise.

When the daylight gives way to paths unclear and the hour grows late, may you still choose joy.

When chains feel heavy and hope feels thin, may you trust that God is already shaking foundations.

May the joy of the Lord be your strength, the peace of Christ guard your heart, and the power of the Holy Spirit carry you through every midnight until morning comes.

And may you go forth knowing:

About midnight... God still delivers.
