Matthew 22:2

"The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son"

I really like the parables where Jesus compares the Kingdom to a banquet. Generally there is a group that's invited and some come when it is ready but some make excuses. Sometimes there is an element where those who were invited really don't want to come and mistreat the servants who have brought the invitation. The master wants the table full, and so the servants do everything they are instructed to do and there is still room. I really like that part of the story, there is room at God's table for everyone.

The United Methodist Church finds itself in a season of change. For some this season means no longer being United Methodist, for some it means waiting and for still others it means staying United Methodist. In Greeneville and Greene county quite a few of our smaller sister churches have engaged in this conversation of disaffiliation. I hope you will join me in praying for these sisters and brothers during this time. These are not easy conversations and to complicate matters there is so much information to sort through.

Some of our sister churches have felt comfortable waiting. As United Methodist we are well practiced at the art of waiting. We wait every four years for the coming of the General Conference. We wait every year for the coming of the annual conference and the fixing of appointments. We wait on a lot of things and since 2019 it seems like the next General Conference can not get her soon enough. For those who are waiting they rely on the process of being a United Methodist. Our Book of Discipline has not changed since 2019, and the things that we believe to be foundational to the Christian faith have been essentially unchanged since we were formed as a denomination.

There are a lot of conversations being had and a lot of questions being asked. If you have questions or would like to talk about the challenges we are facing as denomination please let me know. We can make time to sit down individually or in a group. I don't profess to know all the answers but I know the one who does. I encourage you to join me in praying for all the United Methodist Churches and our leadership as we move toward General Conference 2024.

In the parable we begin with the King comes to the banquet. The banquet where the servants "compelled" people to come to the King's table. When the King arrives He meets someone who doesn't have on the proper wedding banquet attire. They showed up to the banquet unprepared and the King had them cast out. I think it could be said that it would be better not to come than to come unprepared. It is my goal as the pastor of Asbury United Methodist Church to help all of the Asbury family be prepared, whatever the future may hold.

Blessings,
 Jerry

From the Church Office Administrator; Susan Bowers

Happy February,

The time is flying already. Year End is nearly over and Lent is just around the corner. You should have received your 2022 annual giving statements in the mail. If you did not receive a statement and need it for your taxes just reach out to me and I can send you either a paper copy or I can send it electronically.

Good News you can now text your giving! Just send giving to 423-589-1050 and it will walk you through the process. We appreciate all tithes and offerings and donations to Asbury. We would like to encourage everyone to look into automatic giving to the church. This can be done with our online giving system or through your bank. We have several ways that you can give to the ministries of Asbury.

Directly online on our website AsburyLife.org

Automatic payments from your bank (you set this up yourself)

Check or Cash delivered or mailed or placed in offering plates on Sunday

If you have any questions or suggestions on the giving applications please contact me at the church office.

Benevolence Assistance. In the year 2022 we helped 51 families either with rent or utilities in the amount of $20,140.43. We have already helped 5 families this year. We are only capable of doing this mission through the generous donations of our church members.

I want to encourage everyone to take a look around our website. There is a lot of information that we try to share with everyone at Asbury and we work hard to keep the website fresh and updated. You can find the answer to about every general question you might have on our website. So take a moment look through it. If you have any suggestions or questions please let me know.

We are still taking donations of books, magazines, and other items for our local meals on wheels program. If you have that stack of magazines that are just in your way drop them off at the church. There are 18 participants in the meals on wheels program and they truly enjoy all the reading material. If you would like more information please contact me.

I want to thank each and everyone at Asbury that has supported me while I was in college. College isn't easy and it really isn't when you're 30 years out of high school. I graduated in the fall and have received an Associates Degree in Business Management. I could not have done it without the support of my friends, family and Asbury Family. All your encouragement truly means a lot.

Thank you,
Susan

Asbury United Methodist Women, President Sally Andrew

Hello All,

Here we are already in the second month of 2023! February is typically considered the be the month of love and recognition for those who are special to us. For our mission this month, we are asking each benevolence team to bring specific items to be packed in our 34 college students' care packages. You will be receiving a postcard asking you to bring certain items, such as Microwave popcorn, individually packed cookies or crackers, and gum or candy. If you are unable to attend the meeting please consider dropping your items off at the church office before February 6th. We will be packing the boxes following our lunch and brief meeting.

We will also be collecting money for the AUMW scholarship fund. This will be an ongoing mission so you may give as you are able.

We continue to pray for the families who have recently lost loved ones including AUMW members Jo Beth Lee, Louise Love, and Bea Jennings.

Since our February meeting is so close to Valentines Day let's wear red or pink to the meeting! Remember to bring a bag lunch. A light dessert will be served. Hope to see you there.

Love,
Sally

The Grace of Baptism in Our United Methodist Connection*"I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God made it grow." – 1 Cor. 3:6

My father and mother moved to Greeneville, TN in January of 1976. My father had accepted the position of Director of Music and Youth at Asbury United Methodist Church. My mother was VERY pregnant with me at the time, and a few weeks later, on February 15, 1976 (a date that will live in infamy) I was born. Not long after that – perhaps March or April – I was baptized into the Church. Unable to speak for myself, my parents and the people of Asbury Church made a covenant with God: they agreed to raise me to know the grace and love of Jesus Christ until I was able to profess faith for myself. My parents moved from Greeneville to Johnson City, TN two years later. My father had accepted another job opportunity at Munsey Memorial United Methodist Church as Minister of Music. Munsey Church continued the covenant that Asbury Church took on the day of my baptism. A year or so later, my mother would become the organist at Colonial Heights United Methodist Church. Colonial Heights Church also joined in continuing my baptismal covenant (y'all – it takes a village to raise a pastor).

I have been blessed over the course of my life to be connected to multiple congregations. Each one has loved me into discipleship as I learned to walk with Jesus (and I'm still learning to walk with Jesus). I can remember every sanctuary, and I can name at least one person from every congregation that made a difference in my life. However, there is one congregation about which I remember nothing: Asbury Church. I don't remember the day I was baptized.

I don't remember the sanctuary of Asbury Church, nor do I remember a single parishioner. Yet, it was Asbury Church and no other that surrounded my parents with love and first loved me, stating on my behalf:

With God's help we will proclaim the good news and live according to the example of Christ.
We will surround Randy with a community
of love and forgiveness,
that he may grow in his service to others.
We will pray for him, that he may be a true disciple who walks in the way that leads to life.

Asbury Church loved me and baptized me into the faith. They poured themselves into me that I might become a disciple of Jesus Christ...never knowing if I would.

Asbury Church is a wonderful example of the grace of baptism in our United Methodist Connection: they planted, others watered, and God did the growing. Asbury Church was never able to see me grow up. They didn't witness my profession of faith. They didn't see me stumble, fall away, and come back. Nor did they watch me get married, have children, or take my ordination vows. The seed planted in me by one United Methodist Church in the mountain south, has now pastored United Methodist congregations throughout central Pennsylvania, including my current appointment in the state Capital. I'm certain that the people of Northeastern Tennessee and Central Pennsylvania did not see this outcome. They simply practiced their faith, planting and watering, and God did the rest.

As I close this article, I want to thank all the congregations who have planted and watered me along the way. I would invite you to do the same for those in your prayer life. I give thanks to God for the following congregations: Asbury UMC – Greeneville, Munsey UMC – Johnson City, Colonial Heights UMC – Kingsport, Gravelly Baptist Church (Mamaw's Church – Kingsport), St. John's Episcopal – Johnson City, Guaranda Drive Baptist – Johnson City, First UMC – Johnson City, The Wesley Foundation – ETSU, Farview UMC – Jonesborough, Rogersville UMC – Rogersville, Lake Junaluska Singers – Lake Junaluska, Erwin Presbyterian Church – Erwin, Zion UMC – York, Trinity UMC – New Freedom, Paxtonville UMC – Paxtonville, Christ Community UMC – Selinsgrove, and Calvary UMC – Harrisburg. Thank-you for surrounding me with a community of love and forgiveness. I am alive in Christ because of your ministry and the grace of God.

With a Heart Strangely Warmed,
Pastor Randy
Rev. Randall G. Bennett, Jr., Lead Pastor

FEBRUARY MONTHLY MISSION SPOTLIGHT Asbury Prom Closet

Seventeen years ago, Mrs. Barbara Lawson had a vision to begin a ministry that would share the love of Jesus Christ and help families with the purchase of Prom dresses. Modeled after a program of the same type in North Carolina, Mrs. Barbara and other UMW members began "The Blessed Dress Ministry." The event continues today as being one of Asbury's most important ministries. Not only do young ladies in our on community look forward to this every year, but we now are able to help young ladies in all of Upper East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia.

Asbury Family Ministries took over the Prom Closet in 2019, with continued support from Asbury UMW. Gently used and new Prom dresses are resold in a Boutique like fashion store on the third Saturday of March. Each dress is only $10 and all funds are used to purchase dresses the next year. Young ladies 8th -12th grade are invited to shop on the given day and try on dresses to find that dream dress. There is nothing like seeing the smile on the young ladies face and their parents face when they put that perfect dress on and look ravishing.

It is an honor to continue this ministry today for all those involved. We are currently collecting dresses. Any donated dresses may be dropped off at the Church office. If you wish to make a monetary donation to help purchase new dresses, you may do so with the church office.

The 17th Annual Prom Closet will be held on March 18, 10am-2 pm, in the Fellowship Hall. We will begin setting up dresses on March 15 and 16. If you would like more information or to volunteer on March 16, 17, or 18, please contact Mrs. Kim Brown.

Kim Brown, Director of Family Ministries

Wow! January was amazing! Every year the youth participate in a conference event called Resurrection. If you haven't been part of Resurrection in the past, you have missed an amazing event. (And maybe you should consider working with the youth so you can experience it next year ☺.) The event is 3 days long, kicking off with a worship band on Friday evening and ending with Holy Communion on Sunday. This year the band was FRVR FREE and the speaker was Rev. Dr. Sephanie Hand. Both were incredibly talented and enjoyed by our youth and adults. After the third session was almost over, Rev. Dr. Sephanie Hand offered an invitation to all of us in attendance to either commit our lives to God or to recommit to following Jesus. It was an incredibly powerful night with lots of emotions. The last session she spoke on callings and asked that if anyone felt a call into ordained ministry to move forward to be covered in prayer. 2 young adults from our group went forward! I'm excited to see what God has laid out for our youth and to see them continue to follow Jesus and share his love everywhere they go. One last thing is I wanted you to hear directly from the youth what the weekend meant to them so I have taken a few of their words and added them below. I encourage you to reach out to our youth and ask them to share their experience. Let them know you care about what is going on in their lives and are excited to see them taking an active role in their own faith journey. I also added an image from the last session we had. I felt these questions are ones we all need to be asking ourselves.
