Philippians 1:18

What does it matter? Just this, that Christ is proclaimed in every way, whether out of false motives or true; and in that I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,

In preparing for July, specifically July 4! Along with doing some future thinking and looking ahead to what the church will look like beyond the 2022 General Conference, I found myself in Paul's letter to the church in Philippi. This was the first church that Paul started in eastern Europe. We see this story in Acts 16. Philippi was a Roman colony in ancient Macedonia made up largely of retired soldiers. There was a lot of patriotism and a strong commitment to supporting Rome and the emperor. This created resistance to the message of the Gospel that Paul brought.

However, Paul had a successful mission in Philippi and when he moved on there was a vibrant community of Christ-followers. They continued to struggle with persecution from the powers that be for their belief in Jesus as the one true King, but they remained faithful. So Paul writes this letter to the Philippians to thank them for their gift of financial support while he is imprisoned. Being in a Roman prison awaiting trial was very difficult in part because even though you were in prison you were responsible for your care. This gift from the Philippians made this possible. But even more than that it enabled Paul to continue the ministry of sharing the gospel of Jesus.

While Paul is in prison many come to believe in Jesus. They see the power of Paul's witness and take up the call to share the gospel with others. This is a large part of Paul's discipleship ministry, to help people see how their story is a lived expression of the story of Jesus. Paul's imprisonment has encouraged other people to talk about Jesus. It has encouraged others to look into the story of Jesus and see for themselves. This is a huge challenge for the church still today. One of the things I know about Jesus is he meets people where they are! Whether a woman at a well, a man lying by a pool, a leper crying out, an addict who has hit rock bottom, or whomever. It doesn't matter where someone is, they are never too far to meet Jesus.

So in prison, Paul says, as long as people are talking about Jesus it doesn't matter how it started. He is glad that his imprisonment has brought this forward. And he doesn't care what his imprisonment ultimately brings, whether death or release. Because for Paul to die "in Christ" would be the ultimate release and to be released from prison would be more of a sacrifice to continue to serve in the ministry of the Gospel. This is an incredible way to think about life and death and the ministry of Jesus.

It seems to me that this is a powerful message for us during this new season we find ourselves in. You see as long as people are talking about the Gospel of Jesus it doesn't matter. What matters is that we continue to live or die in Christ. This Independence day I hope you will celebrate the freedom you have to live life in Christ.

Blessings, Jerry

UMW- President Sally Andrew

Greetings Ladies,

I hope this July newsletter finds all of you doing well and enjoying the “lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer.” I, for one, am thankful that the 17-year visitors have exited and that we can once again enjoy the normal sounds of summer!

As things in our church are starting to return to “post Covid normalcy”, we will begin our monthly UMW meetings again on the third Thursday in September. On Thursday, September 16, we will kick off our new year with a covered dish cookout. This should be a fun way to get back together and see friends we may not have seen over the past year. There will be more details in the upcoming August newsletter.

Thank you, Ms. Judy, and the teams that provided meals for the Howard Slagle and Cindy Tvardy families. Please continue to keep these families in your prayers. Also, please keep one another in your prayers that whatever needs there are, they will be provided. Thank you, Lord for always hearing our prayers and being present, especially in times of trials and tribulations. May we always be grateful when times are good as well!

Love to all,
Sally

ACEC Monthly Newsletter

How To Wash Your Hands

Hand washing is the single most important means of preventing the spread of germs in a child care setting. The Centers for Disease Control estimate that up to 80% of infections are spread by hands. In addition, improper and insufficient hand washing can stand in the way of higher quality ratings.

Reminders

- Please remember to sign your child in and out each day!
- Please be curious, if your child is sick (running a fever of 100 or more, throwing up, etc.) please keep your child at home!
- Please check your email for important information, updates, and events from Chassidy. If you need to update your email please see Chassidy or Sharon.

RSV

Respiratory syncytial virus is highly contagious. It spreads through droplets containing the virus when someone coughs or sneezes. It also can live on surfaces (like counters or doorknobs) and on hands and clothing. So people can get it if they touch something that's contaminated.

RSV can spread quickly through schools and childcare centers. Babies often get it when older kids carry the virus home from school and pass it to them. Almost all kids have had RSV at least once by the time they're 2 years old.

in East Knoxville

2021 HOLSTON
ANNUAL CONFERENCE
Mission Offering

The Holston Annual Conference Mission in 2021 is to continue helping those in need within Holston, "Holston Helping Holston." You may or may not be aware of the several tragedies that have struck the East Knoxville area the past year. This area of Knoxville is of great need and also is an area with great potential.

With your help in this years mission offering, Holston churches could surround this area with the love of Jesus and help with the needs while offer a greater potential of hope. The funds that are raised will be used to help East Knoxville churches develop and strengthen their ministries as well as help address the needs of food & nutrition, adequate healthcare and housing.

With that being said, Asbury has designated August 1 & August 8 as Holston Conference Mission Offering Sundays. If you wish to give to this Mission offering, please notate in the memo line of your check or write on the envelope, "Annual Conference Missions"

A poster for an Isaiah 117 fundraiser. The top half features a photograph of lemonade ingredients: sliced lemons, limes, cucumbers, and mint leaves on a light blue wooden surface. A clear plastic pitcher with a purple straw is partially visible. The text "Isaiah 117" is written in a white, sans-serif font, with "Caring for children awaiting foster placement" in a smaller font below it. The main text "JOIN US FOR LEMONADE!" and "SATURDAY, JULY 17" is written in a large, white, sans-serif font. The bottom half of the poster has a black background with white text: "ASBURY KIDMIN HOSTING ISAIAH 117 FUNDRAISER", "WHERE: ASBURY UMC", "WHEN: 10 AM - 2 PM", "WHAT: LEMONADE", and "COST: DONATION".

SUNDAY

4 Ask God what makes Him happy.

11 Tell God about your happiest memory.

MONDAY

5 Tell God what you'd buy if you had $10,000.

12 Tell God something about Him that you really appreciate.

TUESDAY

6 Tell God something you'd like to change about the world.

13 Tell God about a time something started badly but ended well.

WEDNESDAY

7 Tell God about someone you're missing.

14 Tell God something that's bothering you at the moment.

THURSDAY

1 Tell God three words that describe you best.

8 Tell God something about Him that you don't understand.

15 Ask God how He felt when you were born.

FRIDAY

2 Tell God who you like playing with and why.

9 Tell God something you've just learned.

16 Tell God about someone who needs His help.

SATURDAY

3 Pull out family photos and pray for a relative or two.

10 With your parents' permission pray with someone over the phone.

17 Tell God what you like about July.

18 Tell God something that makes your family special.

25 Tell God about your favorite song, or sing it to Him.

19 Ask God about what He's looking forward to and why.

26 Tell God about the worst thing that ever happened to you.

20 Thank God for someone who loves you no matter what.

27 For whom or what do you want to pray today?

21 Tell God about a time when you lied.

28 Tell God something you did that you didn't think you'd be able to.

22 Tell God what you love doing more than anything else.

29 Ask God what He'd like you to help Him change.

23 Tell God about the yummiest thing you've ever eaten.

30 Tell God about a time you felt alone.

24 Pray for someone whose name starts with the letter K.

31 Tell God something that makes you feel worried and why.

Natasha DeBord, Director of Student Ministries

June was another month of fun things! Although we had to re-schedule our pool party, again, we were able to still have some really fun activities! We played mini golf, read scripture, helped clean and organize the Isaiah House, and learned different ways to pray. In July we are going to focus on helping our church as our mission. I encourage youth and their families to volunteer for VBS and the church wide yard sale. Both events need a ton of help prior to the day we have them to be successful.

Calling all adults!!!

Your youth group here at Asbury is in need of some help. We are looking for volunteers who would like to help chaperone events (both regular meetings and special events), help plan and get ready for events, people who would like to provide a snack on Sunday evenings, people to pray for us, and even people who would love to come and lead a lesson. The best part about helping with youth? You usually get fed, and you are going to have fun. Susan and Don both got to play mini golf with us last month and had a blast! If you have a calling for working with the younger generation of our church, we would love to help you find a place in our ministry. If you feel called to providing snacks or a light meal, but don't want to hang with the youth, that's ok too! And if you have another idea of how to volunteer with the youth we are always open to suggestions. Our middle and high school kids are eager to learn and grow as a faith community with you. How can we best pour into them?
