THE GREATEST “STORY”

STORY TIME

We all love a good story. I remember when I was younger I could never tell a story; I could always listen but I could never really tell a story. I would marvel at those who were able to articulate and express themselves in such fantastic ways that it would captivate me and others. The storytelling is actually an inherent part of our human experience as it helps us to make sense of the world around us and share in its meaning. They help us to remember information to transmit this information historically, to share values, to learn from others and their experiences. Storytelling has been around for a very long time allowing us to reach across cultures to connect and to share with one another.

Today we use many forms of sharing whether they be books of various types: printed, e-books today and audiobooks, or whether they are in the form of movies, they all tell a story of some type. Now admittedly the majority of these are fictitious where people can escape the trials of the day or submerge themselves into one of those thrilling CSI or suspense genres.

Personally I love to read. I always have since I was a young boy whether they be science books, military books, you name it I read it. One of my favourite books though from the school library was frog and toad (Benjamin bunny came in a close second!) I remember that book it was hardcover with frog and toad sitting there fishing and the illustrations within it's pages for some reason just captivated me. I liked it so much that I signed it out 12 times in a row! One day I remember being called down to the library and the librarian pulled me aside and I thought I was in trouble, just trembling there because she had the book in her hand. Little did I know she saw my signing it out that many times and asked me why. Well my response was "I just liked the book, I liked the stories."

Frog and Toad

A Little Book of Big Thoughts

So unknown to me the librarian turned to me and said “well since you like it so much I want to give this to you!” and little old sensitive me started crying. What a gift that blessed my heart.

The stories continue throughout the years; our stories. There is a book that has the most profound impact though on the most number of people and it's as Christians we know it as the Bible, the inherent, Holy Spirit inspired word of God. Now many people refer to the Bible and the “stories” contained in it as just that..stories and that they're good lessons, moral lessons many will say. Yet, to those who truly believe have faith and understand the power of God's word contained within the volumous pages, it holds God’s truths, His glory revealed to us. It all started with a story, a story you may have heard someone speak about that eventually led you to that book, the Bible.

When you turn these pages or what did you do? It revealed the truth of God and in that truth took us from the place of our brokenness, God communicating his great love and mercy for us and we were truly transformed by his word. We read :

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”

2 Timothy 3:16-17

You see those transformative pages in which the truth was revealed unto our hearts was God speaking to us through His word! What did it do? What did it say? It led us to the understanding and pointed us in the direction of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. In God's communicating to us He showed us the revelation of His Son, of His great mercy, of the salvation that is available to all who believe in our Lord Jesus Christ. He called us back into a relationship with Him and God made a way and that way was through the sacrifice of our Lord and Saviour. Contained within its transformative pages we would have read/will read in the Bible:

“for “Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Romans 10:13

That's no story, that is the truth of God revealed. This is what this weekend of Easter is about, the sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ to save us from our sins a penalty that we deserved that He and His mercy bore for us.

That is the truth, that is the greatest 'story "that one will ever read or will ever be told Happy Easter!

YOUTH WALK

JACOB MARTINS
& LAURA MORRIS

Hi everyone! Jacob and Laura here :)

We hope you are all having a fantastic second semester so far and that your classes are going well. We especially hope you are able to take some time this Easter to remember and celebrate the death and resurrection of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Our society is quite fast-paced and distracted, and we can quickly forget all that Jesus did on the cross and what it means for us. We all need to take the time to slow down and reflect on what exactly Easter means for us today.

Through our Lord's sacrifice, He demonstrated the ultimate example of love for each of us. As we read in Romans 5:8 "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Jesus Christ, the Son of God, completely innocent and holy, humbled Himself to the point of death on a cross. He bore the punishment for all of humanity's sins once and for all. His body did not remain in the grave, He rose again three days later in victory over sin and death. The work is finished and we have been reconciled to God forevermore through the blood that He shed. His sacrifice means we are free, He has made a way for us to change, and through Him overcome all things in this life. Thank you, Lord! Although we know these things, how quickly can we forget how much God loves each one of us? So much that our Lord Jesus would die for us to live, because that is how precious each one of us is to Him! We can easily buy into the idea that our relationship with God is about the blessings we can get, treating God as some sort of genie-in-a-bottle. Or we may think that God couldn't possibly care about me? We want to encourage you, let us never forget exactly what God did for us 2000 years ago. We cannot comprehend how deep His love is for us. As God has saved us from our sin, we have full assurance that He will help us in everything we face. God is with each of you and He will faithfully uphold you. Continue to seek Him, praise Him and let Him transform you into the people that He wants you to be.

Since this week is Good Friday, we won't be hosting youth group. Instead, we will have a Good Friday service at 11:30am - all are welcome to join! God bless you and we hope to see you then.

THE ^{IN} LIFE

Hello everyone! I hope you are all doing well. A few weeks ago, I spoke about a brother who, along with his community, were doing renovations on their church. The Lord has blessed them abundantly, and they are now looking to expand the church area to the building beside them, to accommodate the people that are attending. We just praise God for calling His people unto Himself! We have been praying for God's provision, and continue to pray that God would provide all things that they need according to His will. Lord Jesus, we commend our brothers and sisters in Pakistan to you, that you would continue to show them Your faithfulness, and goodness. We pray that You provide what You will for their church to have, and trust that you will work all things out for the good of those who love You. In Jesus name, Amen!

Noah Martins

Hello everyone,
I hope you are doing well.

Recently, a sister has been asking for prayer for her family. Her father and her brother are in debt, working in a brick kiln and she is seeking prayer for them specifically as well. Please pray for the Lord to strengthen our sister and her family, to strengthen their hearts in the salvation found in our Lord Jesus Christ and in His grace, that they may be encouraged in continuing to call upon the Lord and know that He is with them and will lead them in Jesus' Name.
