In The Depths of God

*GOD IS OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH,
A VERY PRESENT HELP IN TROUBLE.
THEREFORE WE WILL NOT FEAR,
THOUGH THE EARTH GIVE WAY
FALL INTO THE HEART OF THE SEA.*

*BE STILL, AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD.
I WILL BE EXALTED AMONG THE NATIONS,
I WILL BE EXALTED IN THE EARTH.
THE LORD ALMIGHTY IS WITH US;
THE GOD OF JACOB IS OUR FORTRESS*

PSALM 46:1-11

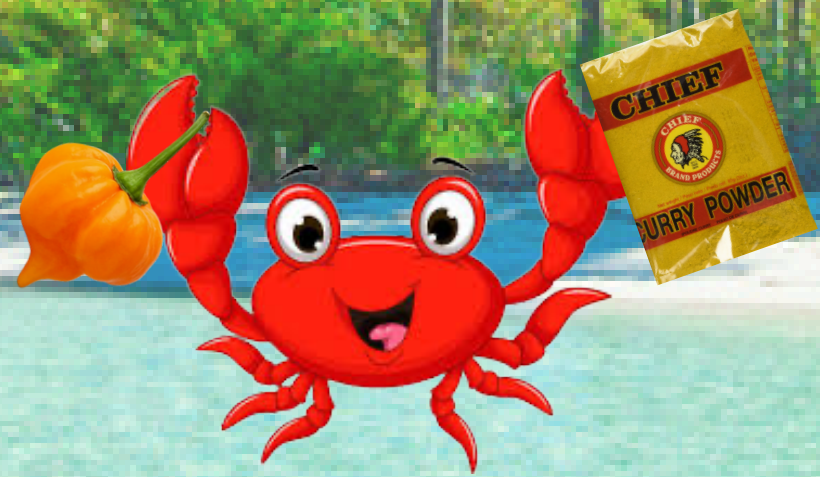

INFINITY POOLS are great but I love the warm salt water of the tropics where you can just sit and soak all day. With the sun blazing down, sunglasses on -so you don't get blinded from the reflection - the warm gentle sea breeze can lull you away, it's warm bath like an envelope. Now I never wade out beyond the depths of my waist; first of all the undercurrents are usually pretty strong and you can get swept out pretty quickly. Secondly I can't swim! So I stay in the kiddie shallows where it's pretty safe. There was a time though I desired to do scuba diving, exploring the depths yet never proceeded due to that one little or shall I say big factor that I couldn't swim. So it was either in a boat canoe or kayak or in the shallows of the water I remained relegated to.

Now the waters that the Lord has created are vast, deep and teeming FULL life of all types. Some cute little fish and some not so cute other species lurking about. I remember when I was younger watching all the wildlife shows (I didn't have choice). I would see the barracudas and the ravenous sharks especially after viewing Jaws, struck a note of fear of the unseen things under the water. So I'm quite fine sitting in the shallows where I have a good purview of all that is beneath me ...aka sand!

It's amazing really as one wades in the water and from that perspective you see the oceans and the sea just open up with it's expanse before you; it's vastness unknown to us. The enormity of the waters leaves you wondering what the depths of the oceans truly contain. It's amazing the waters haven't been fully explored by humanity; we've climbed the high highest peaks, we've sent rockets to the moon to infinity and beyond! Yet the very thing that we are surrounded by is some of the least explored...the depths of the waters. Believe me there's a LOT to explore as we read in these verses:

“God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed after their kind...”

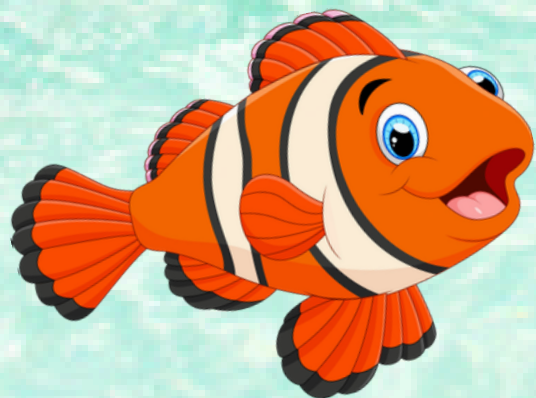

Genesis 1:21

“In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the same day all the fountains of the great deep burst open”

Genesis 7:11

“When He established the heavens, I was there, When He inscribed a circle on the face of the deep”

Proverbs 8:28

Did I say there's lots still to explore? Great sea monsters, fountains of the deep, a circle in the face of the deep! Have we found them, is anyone looking...does anyone dare to go into the depths and breadth of the waters?

Given the earth is 70% water although the entire ocean floor has been low resolution mapped by satellites, we as humans have only SEEN 0.001% of the deep ocean floor, which makes up the majority of the bodies of water. In these great depths precision and specialized submersibles are required to survive the extreme pressures. Even in this dark, no light frigid place there is life!

According to NOAA more than 2000 new species are discovered every year. Oh how little we know.

This all created as we read in Geneses 1:21 , by God. How amazing to be in the depths of God! The things yet to be discovered of our Lord as we coast and glide in the waters (for those who can swim) that seem never ending. It's like our own lives as we traverse each day going about our tasks and seeing each day a chance to learn more about our Lord and Saviour. As we keep our minds in God throughout the day we see amazing things, How He reveals His will, leads us, truly guides us in all we do. In so doing we draw closer to HIM:

“Draw near to God and He will draw near to you....”

James 4:8

Each day is an exciting discovery in the “good “ days yet more so in our days of trial! How, in the midst of life, the trials that challenge us, if we remain IN God and His word, if we swim in the depths of His goodness...we see something. We see that God loves us, He is never changing and He IS with us and faithful to all He says! It's something we need to discover/rediscover each day, with ever breath, swimming in the amazing presence and all things of our Holy God as we are led by the Holy Spirit. It is He the Holy Spirit that reveals these deep things of God :

“For to us God revealed them through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God.”

1 Corinthians 2:10

So, sea monsters and all...anyone up for a swim in the word of God?

YOUTH WALK

Hi everyone! Laura and Jacob here. We hope you are all having a great week back to school. We wanted to write to you all this week about honesty. Honesty is a trait that is lacking in many ways in our world, as I am sure you see on display in high school life. Think about how many times someone has asked “how are you?” We normally respond with “I’m good, thank you” ... even when deep down, we are having a really rough day. Maybe our teacher asks us about something we did and we tell a ‘white lie’ to avoid the consequences. Or maybe we forget to respond to someone and we say “I didn’t see your text, sorry!” Some people go the other way and just say the first thing that comes to mind to whoever will listen, but that isn’t quite honesty either.

Honesty comes from sharing the truth about a situation in love, which is not something that comes naturally to human beings. However, honesty is foundational to every relationship. When we are honest, we allow people to see the true parts of ourselves. Sometimes we may not feel like explaining how we feel, or are too embarrassed to be honest. But honesty allows us to open up with others and take down any walls we have put up and be who we truly are. When we are honest, we can ask for help and get support in the areas of our life we are struggling with. Honesty really is the best policy

If we are called to be honest with one another, how much more should we be honest with God. We read in Psalm 51:6 “Behold, You desire truth in the innermost being, And in the hidden part You will make me know wisdom.” God wants us to be honest at our very core, sharing with Him our thoughts and actions, our feelings and struggles. When we communicate with the Lord in this way, we freely and honestly pour out our hearts unto Him. It shows that we are surrendered to God and His ways, and not set in our own broken ways. If we pretend like everything is okay, we reject God’s help, even though we absolutely need it. We want to encourage you to be honest with God in your lives. Our Heavenly Father loves us so much and is faithful to help us in every area we share with Him. God bless you all and see you on Friday :)

THE ^{IN} LIFE

Hello everyone! I hope you are all doing well. This week I have been speaking with a brother from Pakistan, who has asked for prayer for the large population of children forced into labour in his community. They do not attend school, but work outside, typically in the brick kilns. Lord Jesus, we just lift this community up to you. We pray that you would bless your children, and would free them from the oppression and forced labour according to Your will. Strengthen our brother to share the Word of God where You ordain, and we commend them all to you, in Jesus name, Amen!

Noah Martins

Hello everyone,
I hope your week is going well :)
I want to ask everyone this week to continue to pray for our sister and her husband who have been facing some trying circumstances such as unemployment and the loss of their baby. Recently, her husband's parents had kicked them out of the house and she said that they have nothing to eat, nothing to drink, and no money to use. This has left them very worried. Please lift them up to the Lord. Lord, we pray please uphold Your children and strengthen them, Lord we pray for Your sustenance for our brother and sister and for Your peace to be with them in the midst of this trial. Please show them that You are with them Lord and help them to keep their eyes on You, every hour we need You Lord, every moment. Father please surround them with Your love, in Jesus Name, Amen.

Scripture Memory Verse

“For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name, that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; and that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled up to all the fullness of God.”

Ephesians 3:14-19

Are you ready to accept our Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour and be obedient unto His command of Baptism? Please speak with us.

” FOR THIS REASON I BOW MY KNEES BEFORE THE FATHER, FROM WHOM EVERY FAMILY IN HEAVEN AND ON EARTH DERIVES ITS NAME, THAT HE WOULD GRANT YOU, ACCORDING TO THE RICHES OF HIS GLORY, TO BE STRENGTHENED WITH POWER THROUGH HIS SPIRIT IN THE INNER MAN, SO THAT CHRIST MAY DWELL IN YOUR HEARTS THROUGH FAITH; AND THAT YOU, BEING ROOTED AND GROUNDED IN LOVE, MAY BE ABLE TO COMPREHEND WITH ALL THE SAINTS WHAT IS THE BREADTH AND LENGTH AND HEIGHT AND DEPTH, AND TO KNOW THE LOVE OF CHRIST WHICH SURPASSES KNOWLEDGE, THAT YOU MAY BE FILLED UP TO ALL THE FULLNESS OF GOD.””

Ephesians 3:14-19
