THE WAY THE TRUTH THE LIFE

The Flags We Fly

It's July 1st so let me begin by saying Happy Canada Day!

The picnic baskets are out, families are gathered, parks are filled for all the festivities that Canada on his birthday has to offer. There will be dancing and singing in the streets. There will be people gathered sharing food and music. Fireworks will end off today, a day to be remembered. And what a memory it will be for the things that we stand for and the flags that we wave.

Now a flag is just not a flag; it represents sovereignty and identity of a country, It represents ideals of society. It evokes emotions where one is supposed to stand proud for what it represents.

Flags say 1000 words and then some in one image. In the blink of an eye there is an understanding of what is happening and what is represented; it's that quick. So we shouldn't be so quick to dismiss flags.

Pirates of the the high seas used to fly the jolly Roger flag, you know the one with the skull and cross bones....arrrr matey!!The flag originated in the 1800s where it was about the golden era of piracy on the seas. It was meant to strike fear and emphasize the ruthless reputation that the Raiders of the high seas... a.k.a. Pirates... were well known for. In a few seconds it brought overwhelming and paralyzing fear to merchant cruises who were transporting precious cargo from all over the globe. There was a sense of doom chaos and it was a high-pressure situation that the captain had to deal with. It all occurred once that flag was seen in the blink of an eye.

Every country today has a flag of its own and whereby it is known and recognized. The emblems represent the core culture of that particular country. For instance just to the south who will also be celebrating their birthday in a few days, we have the stars and stripes of the United States. The 13 stripes represent the original 13 British colonies that declared independence and the 50 star has represent the 50 states that make up the union. Then you have the union jack of the UK which represents a political union of the countries that make up the United Kingdom, it was a sign of global authority and dominance.

Yes and we have the good old Maple Leaf of Canada! How heartwarming and emotive is that flag... or should I say was that flag. Why WAS ? Where there was nobility and wonderment and freedom and joys in the big wide open country of Canada we've seen that the snares of Freedom have closed into a death grip.

Well how is that and what do you mean? You may ask. Look at the flag that's being flown? Remember we said that in an instant you will be able to identify exactly what it stands for. No longer is the Maple Leaf to be seen; it has taken a backseat to secondary if at best to social and political ideologies. To be blunt agendas that are being pushed of great unrighteousness. This should strike fear into the hearts of those who truly are able to think, Into the hearts of those who see the truth and found it in our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

The flag is supposed to represent the ideals of society and a community, which these lies that are being sold to people as progress and as truths DO NOT in any capacity represent the people of God and the truth of His word in the Bible. Now this is not exclusive to Canada but we see this global trend sadly occurring, selling the same lies that our Lord Jesus Christ has saved people from being pushed upon society. Canada has even gone further and has recently as of June 2026 passed Bill C9 which they call the combatting hate law.

Let's understand none of us stand for hate or persecution against anyone. but what this bill does is continues to propagate lies that are being flown around. Specifically the government in their deliberations from the highest levels, Carney & Miller. Liberal cabinet members along with his entire party, leader and the supporting party of the Bloc-have removed exemptions for religious held beliefs. They have also lowered the threshold of hate to become an arbitrary feeling. In this they specifically cited the books of the Bible as being primary targets for anyone who preachers them where they should be liable and subject to direct prosecution by any authority on the whim of a feeling.

the flag they're flying of lies, deceit and unrighteousness is attacking the flag of the Cross. We read IN THE BOOK OF ROMANS 1:28-32:

28 And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God any longer, God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do those things which are not proper, being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice; they are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, without understanding, untrustworthy, unloving, unmerciful; and although they know the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, they not only do the same, but also give hearty approval to those who practice them.

In this I stand at th cross of our Lord and cry out from th book of Romans and call who will hear
“For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed [jj]from faith to faith; as it is written, “But the righteous man shall live by faith.” Romans 1:16-17

YOUTH WALK

JACOB & LAURA MARTINS

Hi everyone, we hope your first week of summer break has been relaxing and is going well. As summer begins, life can really slow down. You no longer have assignments to complete and exams to study for. We usually see our friends less and this typically leaves us with a lot more time to reflect. During these times, it can be easy to get caught in our heads, start to think or worry more, but we want to encourage you to use this slower time to reflect on God and His majesty. To pause and treasure in our hearts His great works on display all around us.

We see the majesty of the Lord in countless ways in our lives. One of the ways is in the beauty of creation all around us. It may be looking at a breathtaking view, standing on the top of a hill overlooking scenery below, or watching the beauty of the sun setting. In these moments we see a glimpse of the vastness of God's creation and ultimately His great glory in our lives. When we stop and truly take in and savour the glorious sight before us, it can almost be overwhelming how great and mighty the Lord is. We see how small we are in comparison. These moments are meant to lead us to praise and exalt the Lord for who He is and all He has done. We read this in

Psalms 145:3 "Great is the LORD, and highly to be praised, And His greatness is unsearchable."

We see the glory of God all the more through everything He has done in our lives. The wonderful creation He has made us to be, the incredible work He has done to save us and transform our hearts. The Lord continues to uphold and deliver each of us through every trial and challenge. It is hard to fully comprehend all the Lord has done and continues to do for us each day, He truly is so faithful and worthy of all of our praise. No matter what each of us is facing right now, we know that God's goodness does not change. For each of us, His children, He is ever so present and tenderly caring for us. We want to encourage you this day, reflect upon all the Lord has done and rejoice and praise Him! God is so good!

God bless you all
- Jacob and Laura

THE ^{IN} LIFE

Hello everyone I hope you are all well. This week I've been speaking with a brother whose wife is sick in the hospital. They don't know yet what is wrong and he has just asked for prayer for her. Lord Jesus Heavenly Father we glorify your name, we thank You in all things. We left our brother's wife, Your daughter up to You Jesus, that you would bring healing Lord to her by Your precious will. We pray Holy Spirit, come down upon her and if it be Thy will, we pray You would heal her sickness. We pray You strengthen the faith of her husband, to stand within this trial and to give all control and worries and anxieties to you. For You are a good and gracious God and You promise to uphold Us in all things. We glorify Your name Lord and we thank You in Jesus name, Amen.

Hello everyone,
I hope that you are well!
I wanted to ask if everyone could continue to pray for our one sister and her family who has been going through challenge after challenge. They continue to struggle financially, needing food and to pay their expenses, so please continue to commend them to the Lord that He would sustain them and bring the essentials that they need as well as to uphold them in faith in Himself and to give them the strength to seek Him first in these great trials. The Lord promises us in His Word, "But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you." – Matthew 6:33.
