"There's A Voice That Keeps On Calling Me..."

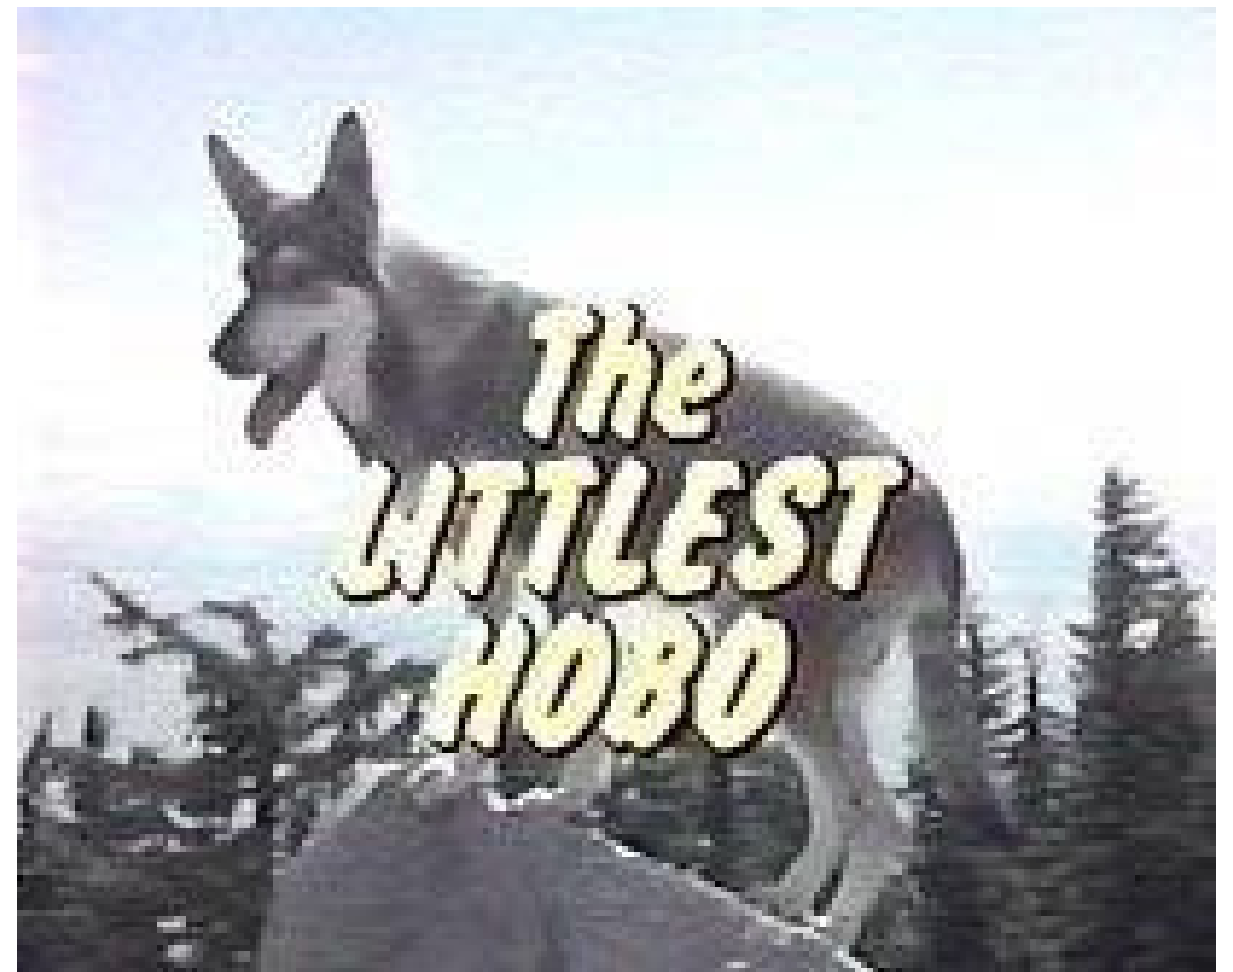

Some television shows growing up when I look back were really really bad! I'm still trying to figure out, or maybe someone tell me the purpose for B.J. and the bear? A truck driver with a pet Chimpanzee travelling the roads and helping people...with a Chimpanzee did I mention! Not even the opening tune of the show really made sense; just didn't (nor does it still) get the foot tapping and the lyrics calling to me. Nope, it's the end of the road with the sour voices of B.J and his bear!

Now there were many other shows of the 70's that were homely, family oriented, full of safe action (as far as I could recall). One such show was the Littlest Hobo a favourite of mine. There was stoic London (the star dog) who was intelligent and roamed about helping, rescuing people just in the nick of time to save them from the dangers at hand ! WOW, exciting ! I use to make sure I was sitting and ready for the beginning of the show. Why? I didn't want to miss the starting song!

*"There's a voice that keeps on calling me
Down the road, that's where I'll always be Every stop I take, I make a new friend
Can't stay for long, just turn around and I'm gone again.."*

Poor London, always on the move but my heart warmed with that little jingle, it was right up there with John Denver and Kenny Rogers; well not that good but enough to imprint those words in my mind decades later.

Those words of the song are interesting though and truly hold something to them!
" there's a voice that keeps on calling me .."
What was that voice London (the dog) was hearing and how was it guiding him to help all of those people? Silly question I know but I look at the life of a Christian isn't it the same?

" there's a voice that keeps on calling me .."

A small white lamb is walking towards the camera on a dirt path. To its right, the lower legs and feet of a person wearing a long white robe and sandals are visible. The scene is set in a field during sunset or sunrise, with warm golden light illuminating the lamb and the person's legs. The background is a soft, out-of-focus landscape.

My sheep hear my voice, I know them, & they follow me.

Our Lord Jesus has rescued each of us from ourselves and from our actions /life of sin. We joyously belong to HIM and go forth living unto His will and for His glory.

"but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect."

1 Peter 1:19

In the traverse of this life know that you never walk alone God IS with us as we seek Him and His righteousness in our lives. God does guide us, He does speak into our hearts as we draw into a deeper relationship. ABSOLUTELY we can say that in the Christian life:

"there's a voice that keeps on calling me !"
That voice we know is of the Holy Spirit who leads us in this life keeping us strengthened, and remembering the words of our Lord and Saviour. That voice that leads us constantly away from sinning, from danger and contrary ways to God and His word as we seek to live a life that is pleasing unto God.

“ My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand.”

John 10:27-28

We are the Lord's and we DO KNOW HIS VOICE!

How wonderful and amazing is that to know God calls to our hearts to remain with Him and not to roam about doing as we please. There is an assurance in the second part of the verse

“ I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand”

John 10:28

The Lord blesses us with eternal life and in that none, nothing can take us away from His saving grace. That's an important thing to remember as we steadily walk this carnal and physical life. We will face challenges of many types, we will have schedules that are too hectic, we will be ready to *give up. Yet when we pause “ there's a voice that keeps on calling me “ that voice is the Lord, His Holy Spirit speaking to us, comforting us, leading us in His ways and in fellowship with Him. It is vital we know God's voice and how / who He is speaking into our lives. We need to drown out all the other jingles of the day that want to distract us so that we can hear clearly as possible as *there's GOD'S voice that keeps on calling me !

YOUTH WALK

A photograph of two young men walking away from the camera down a school hallway. The man on the left is wearing a grey hoodie, blue jeans, and a black backpack. The man on the right is wearing a dark blue hoodie, blue jeans, and a grey backpack. The man on the left has his arm around the shoulder of the man on the right. The hallway has blue lockers on both sides, a polished floor, and a door at the end. The title 'YOUTH WALK' is overlaid in large, yellow, stylized letters.

Jacob Martins & Laura Morris

Hi everyone! Jacob and Laura here. Now that we are really under way in the fall, we can truly say ... happy fall! The colours are here, and it is beautiful. For those of you who have been to the new church location, you have seen the great work God has done in preparing His house (we still can't get over how pretty it is!) What is there not to be thankful for? Well, it depends who you ask ...

As some of you may know, Laura is in her last year of teachers college and let me be the one to say, it is a lot of work. Assignments that take a long time to complete, lots of long nights and a poor class schedule, but on top of all that, some of her classmates complain a lot! Laura tells me stories about some of the things they say about the teachers (to their faces!), or about the assignments, or the university itself, you name it!

Despite the difficult environment some of her classmates create, we talk all the time about how she should respond. Laura could cast judgement, avoid them, think she is better than them, start to complain herself ... or she should see her classmates for who they truly are in the Lord, children of God. The same goes for each one of us, no matter who it is or what the situation is. The Lord calls each of us to demonstrate His love and have compassion for

ALL His people. God also calls us to be intentional about letting the light of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ shine forth in all that we say and do.

Matthew 5:16 says "In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven." When we come alongside our peers and truly care for them, invite them to church, pray for and with them (rather than judging them), God uses us to draw people closer to Himself! So we challenge you all, don't view your peers from a worldly perspective, see them the way the Lord sees them. Let the love of God shine forth in all we say and do, and everyone will see God for who He truly is through us and begin to turn to Him!

Hello everyone, this week, a brother has shared with me that he, his family, and his congregation have suffered the loss of a fellow church member. It has been a painful loss to bear. We lift them up to our Lord Jesus Christ in prayer, that He would encourage and uplift our brethren. I pray that the Lord will guard their hearts and minds in this time. We look forward to the blessed inheritance of eternity with Christ our Saviour, and know with absolute assurance, that Jesus has prepared a place for us. God bless you all.

Hello everyone! I wanted to remind you of our sister and her siblings who had been challenged in their faith and living in extremely poor conditions, please continue to lift them up to the Lord that He blesses them and leads them. She had reached out again recently asking for help as they are struggling to survive due to severe food shortages, they are living in poverty. Please ask our Lord to grant them the faith to make it in these days, that they be encouraged in our Lord Jesus, for His provision and that He uphold them with His Mighty and Protective Hand.

LEAVING COMFORT FOR YOUR CALLING

To honor God, we must be willing to decisively step into the unknown. Why? Because the greatest hindrances to us walking into our destiny are complacency and familiarity. Many of us have audacious, God-given dreams, but fear and uncertainty aim to discourage us from pursuing them. This series is designed to deal with the voices that plague our mind, tempting us to play it safe. Whether it's family, relationships, financial security, or past successes, Faith Moves encourages us to abandon our need for security and venture into the unknown. It crystallizes the reality that faith isn't stagnant but active. God wants you to break free from comfortable surroundings to experience his divine calling for your life. So, take a leap of faith! You'll find that your destiny is waiting for you when you leave familiarity and live by faith.
