Mercy...For ALL Nations

When I was a teenager I loved classical music, the opera, ballet. So much so that I would drive down to Roy Thompson Hall to see the recent performances. There I would sit and be mesmerized by the music, the flowing movements of the artists. Elegant, graceful and emotions of love in action! Amazing! My heart would cry with joy. I enjoyed it so much so that I actually was going to take ballet lessons at one point..can you imagine (or please..don't)!

Even today I still enjoy a great classic performance where one can behold the skill, artistry , the love expressed in each motion as the performer glides across the stage.

Emotion of love in action; it stirs us all and speaks to our hearts. The great power to split the hardened stone of our hearts and bring tears to the most obstinate of us. Some are stirred with simple cute things like bunny rabbits so cuddly and gentle as they happily hop along . Another may be moved by helping an elderly person with some chores or assistance of some sort, even just spending time and visiting with them.

In the tougher situations of life where maybe one is suffering with a prolonged disease and they are challenged, a loving word and a warm meal delivered out of care can have great impact. Death is always a difficult situation for us, the spectrum of emotions and the impact upon us can be extreme and too much to manage individually. In these situations we rally around and embrace those who suffer, as the Bible tells us:

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."

Matthew 5:4

Yes, we become stirred in our own hearts when we experience, see and sharelove! Why is that? It's because we're made, fashioned by God who IS LOVE! We read:

"Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love"

By nature we respond to and know love, and we can see this in our behaviours, in our desire for love. Yet, some situations and experiences that are love deficient from this life can leave us hurt, broken hearted, damaged in our hearts and we carry those wounds throughout our days. Are we suppose to hold onto these hurts and emotional (loveless) events and traumas? NO! We seek to heal, to overcome for restoration in love.

As it is Easter, we look to the cross. This is the ultimate, the greatest act of love ever that the God and creator of ALL would take upon Himself for our sins. It is here, only at the cross that this restoration of love, the redemption in the blood of our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ occurs.

In the suffering quietness and murderous pains He bore for us in love, in this selfless act of love (God is Love), He rescued , healed, freed us for the captivity of this carnal life and ALL that it burdens us with. Freed us that we may return and know Love, our Lord and God Jesus Christ, our Holy Father and the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

What are we to do or How are we to respond? Come to the cross and let the blood that was shed for all be applied as the salve to the hurts, the wickedness of our hearts and broken lives. Let the Blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ wash us clean and remain under this His authority, as His beloved possession! Yes , know you are the property of God, as we have been bought back in love, redeemed with the previous blood of Jesus Christ that was shed for you and I. It is the will of our Heavenly Father, the God of Love, our Lord Jesus Christ to have the FINAL say on the cross. Love acted out, where there is great emotion and grace in the actions that say ..."my child, you are free!"

COSF International & Mission Notes

We continue into 2025 and we see the Lord leading us into His harvest field. This is an exporting to the regions we are called to - of what we have been called to do at home - preaching the Word, make disciples, feed the poor. This is unfolding as we engage with our brothers and sisters in each region, and we pray the Lord continue to bless and to lead us in the labour of His glory and righteous name.
