Working with our hands, making things, labouring isn't for everyone but we are called to just that... labour. Personally, I love building things! Our previous house we bought was a complete disaster and needed a full interior rebuild, so we gutted it to the bare walls. Being our first attempt at such a major project, who knew it was a massive undertaking! None the less , there we were designing, nailing, hammering everything out of and then into place with its replacement. By the end of the renovations, 3 years later, it turned out very nice and a joy for us to enjoy.

During all of this many people thought we were crazy, took on took much but when it was all done there was so much to be thankful for. A house, a healthy family and monthly fellowships glorifying our Lord Jesus filled the air inside. Yes, the space was made with the intention of people gathering in mind and the Lord used this space built for Him for the purpose of touching the lives of His people.

We decided to move and do it all over again, this time a bigger project with extensions and engineering requirements. When the foundation was poured the first thing that was done was inscribe in the wet concrete:

"...as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

Joshua 24:15

Again tremendous labour went into building the house with the intention again of fellowships and a local church. As we laboured with our hands with God in front of ALL we did, He upheld us. The house was built on the SOLID ROCK foundation, the very Word that is our Lord Jesus Christ. Even though there were tremendous challenges throughout all of this, God triumphed and each problem encountered was overcome IN CHRIST JESUS our Saviour.

Now I understand life is not easy, but I can assure you living as we are instructed in the Bible, according to God's ways surely alleviates a lot of needless pain and suffering. David says in the Psalms:

"Keep me safe, my God, for in You I take refuge."

In Psalm 16:1 and again later in verse 16:5 and 16:8 he says

"Lord, you alone are my portion and my cup; you make my lot secure."

"I keep my eyes always on the Lord. With him at my right hand, I will not be shaken."

IN YOU, IN GOD- David's kept the Lord before

A Labour of love and solid foundation - the hewn rock churches of Lalibela, Ethiopia him and sought Him diligently. And so it should be! We are instructed to do this to build our houses on the righteousness of the Lord. There's the building and labour again! Yes, we are to put our efforts into learning of seeking the Lord all the days of our lives. In doing so we build a solid foundation of FAITH that can withstand the trials of this life. We read about this clearly in the Gospel of Matthew:

"Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash.”

Matthew 7:24-27

The difference in the parables here is those who put the Lord's words into practice and those who do not. So we see there is a labour of love that we are called to; a labour in our Lord Jesus Christ. As we work to learn and walk fully in all He has commanded, His grace blesses our lives, it builds within us strength, fortitude, perseverance and more. These are gifts of the spirit that we become blessed with as He apportions to His choosing.

The same labour as building the house; the effort, the trials are the same efforts required to learn and in the righteousness of the Lord. One is physical bricks and mortar, the other spiritual which is where OUR Lord is leading us, into the spiritual life. Yet in order to achieve this, to live in His blessed presence, we have to labour to abandon ourselves and obey He who has saved us. God is building His house; building solid foundations in the lives of people He calls where we are all to participate and labour in.

“Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.”

How is your labour going... joyful and blessed or suffering and fear ?

Jacob Martins & Laura Morris

Hi everyone! Jacob and Laura here :)

Have you ever noticed the way that most people tend to communicate or notice the things they talk about? Maybe you notice most people laugh about funny tiktok/IG trends, gossip about friends or who they are dating, complain about assignments and homework, maybe a new album that someone just dropped ... people seem to enjoy speaking about superficial things. However, if we rarely speak about things we are struggling with or never ask genuine questions about life, how are we supposed to grow? How can anyone get help if they never ask for it? The challenge is we can get sucked into this superficial culture and become familiar with hiding our genuine selves from the world.

This is why we thank God of who He is. He is a God that knows every part of us, right down to the deepest areas of our lives. We know that we can pour out our lives before Him because His love for us is perfectly genuine. He loves us to the point that He sent His son to die for our sins. We are also thankful for His church, the place where we can come and get help, ask questions and grow in our genuine love for God and His people.

And this is what we want to encourage you in today. Romans 12:9-10 says "Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in love Honour one another above yourselves." We are not called to be like the world, but we instead demonstrate the genuine love of the Lord to everyone around us. When our peers are struggling, we can actually care and listen, we can invite them to church, we can pray with them and lift them up before God. Those unselfish actions stand out in our insincere culture and draw people closer to God. When we struggle, we can be honest with our questions or challenges. We shouldn't be afraid to ask godly people for help. Through the honesty of our actions, we can actually come to the heart of the issue and get help from God and His people. There is no shame, everyone struggles, but we lift each other up and be devoted to one another in love. If you have any questions, we invite you to bring them up at Friday Night Youth Group (see below for more information).

IN THE life ...

Hello everyone. A few months ago, I spoke of a brother who was suffering from lung cancer, and his struggles to receive treatment . He is doing well today, and is incredibly encouraged in the Lord. His medication has been helping immensely, however he is struggling to afford it. We just lift our brother up to the Lord that God would provide all he needs, and would strengthen his health by the Power of His Holy Spirit. We trust that God is faithful and able to uphold all who call on His name!

Hello everyone, I hope your week was well! This week a sister wanted prayer for her mom, she said that one arm and leg aren't working easily and this can be very challenging in many ways. Please pray for the Lord to uphold her and encourage her in this. That her leg and arm be healed for His glory, and may she be drawn nearer to our Lord in this trial, finding rest in Him. Also, please pray for our sister that she be strengthened in this as well as she walks alongside her mom.

Storms in life are inevitable. We all face them at some point or another. Our concerns cause us to run to what we believe will rescue us—and that's not always God. Sometimes we look to our own strength, our bank account, our reputation, or a relationship. Storms always lead us to what we look to for salvation—and what we look to makes all the difference.
