Lord of The Harvest

It's incredible to think that we are halfway through the month of June. Where does the time go? Seems we keep asking ourselves this day after day and week after week as time continues to move on and it brings to the forefront of our minds the saying that "time waits for no one."

I reflect back as we were planning for the church in Africa-Kenya and Uganda. It was a short time ago that we began this endeavour working through training, discipleship and by the grace of God an upcoming leadership program. It truly is amazing what time can do the changes that can be brought forth in all things. What is more incredible is how God does this when we rely on Him and when we seek Him in all things. We were talking about fruit and blessings, that when we surrender our labors to our righteous God He will bring forth the goodness and the bounty to His glory.

We have witnessed this not only in the growth of our brothers who are preaching forth the gospel of our salvation in the villages and communities around the region with increased and renewed strength of the Holy Spirit. We see this also in the farming project that Christ Our Saviour Fellowship has endeavoured in to feed the the hungry, the poor, the most vulnerable of our brothers and sisters in addition to supporting the local church.

“Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this,” says the Lord of hosts, “if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows.”

Malachi 3:10

As we came to the maturity of the harvest there was portions that were taken. In this we pray that those people were blessed and fed in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

‘Now when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.<sup>10</sup> Nor shall you glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather the fallen fruit of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the needy and for the stranger. I am the Lord your God.’

Leviticus 19:9-10

Yes it's incredible what time will do,. Early this year the seeds were planted for the corn (maize) and as we waited we lingered in God knowing and trusting that it is He the Lord Himself that would provide for His people. The waiting was a challenge; hungry bellies and people anticipating the good things yet to come. and there certainly were some trials, out of 2 1/2 acres of the COSF Africa farm a large portion of the planted region was washed away by the rains.

In all of this there was great labour and prayer there was lingering and abiding in God. It truly is amazing what time can do. What growth of our brothers spiritually in the Lord, growth of the church, the growth of the harvest being brought forth by the hand of God... it is in the Lord's time His fruit will be harvested.

“Now He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness;”

That's a good lesson for us today. We can be in such a rush, impatient for things to happen that we turn to our own strengths and to our own ways instead of just lingering and waiting on God, who knows the appointed time for all things. Only in our Lord in His righteous time is their fruit, is there goodness, is there His blessings and glory to His holy name.

So the first harvest is done, praise the living God!

Now, we rejoice that the hand of our Lord has blessed His people with some essentials for life...food! We also look towards utilizing the proceeds from the harvest to prepare for the next planting

In the coming weeks for a harvest of beans. And so we continue to linger and we wait on God as we plant the seed and God brings forth the fruit. As Paul said “I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing the growth.” 1 Corinthians 3:6

See you Sunday @10:30

Pastor Gerald- Who Will You Invite?

*“Sing to the Lord a new song;
Sing to the Lord, all the earth.”
Psalm 96:1*

The COSF Hymnbook is here! We're excited to bring you the songs and hymns that we sing unto the Lord so that as a global church we can sing forth glorious praises to our Lord Jesus.

The book is set up in a digital format and also available on our website. Each song provides the lyrics and the musical key/chords for congregations and worship teams

YOUTH WALK

JACOB MARTINS & LAURA MORRIS

Hi everyone, happy last week (or 1.5 weeks) of school!!!!

Laura and I are so proud of each of you and how you've persevered through all of the ups and downs of the year and we're sure each of you will do great on your exams!

This week we want to talk with you about God's love. We all have heard many times before about God's love for us. We read about God's love in the Bible, we hear sermons or watch videos about it. But how often do we truly slow down to reflect upon God's love and to experience it in our hearts? We may know that God loves us, but our hearts can easily be turned away towards other things in this life. Without even realizing it, we can rely on others to make us feel complete, secure, and loved. Whether it is a sibling, a parent or a best friend, we put them in the place that only God is supposed to be. It's not that feeling loved is a bad thing, but if we go to others before we go to the Lord, we will never be satisfied and we will miss out on experiencing the love God has for us. Even our well-intentioned love pales in comparison to the love of our Lord Jesus for all of His children.

That is why we read in 1 John 4:16 "And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them." The love of God is far beyond our understanding and comprehension. God loves us unconditionally even though He knows everything about us, even the most broken things, we don't want anyone to see. God gave everything for us in sending Jesus to die for us on the cross so that we could be saved from our sin and brokenness. He bore the weight of our sin, so we could have life in Him. It is hard to fathom a love this incredible. Words cannot explain the love of God. He truly wants the best for each of us, even when we don't want it for ourselves. He desires for us to be right by His side. He desires for us to be in close relationship with Him and turn to Him first above all others. It is in Him alone that we are completely loved, complete and alive.

His love for us is not dependent on how well we are doing or what we have to offer Him. We have nothing to offer the Lord, but all that He has given us. We are simply called to come to Him and receive all of the love He has poured out for us. It is in Him alone we are eternally satisfied and completely loved.

God bless you all and see you on Friday

THE<sup>IN</sup> LIFE

Hello everyone, I hope you are all doing well. This week I've been speaking with a brother, who has had some troubles that he has asked for prayer for. They recently just had a funeral for his father, and we just lift him and his family up to the Lord, that God would uphold them and strengthen them in this time. We have assured hope in Jesus Christ, as we read in Romans 10:13 "Whoever will call upon the name of the Lord will be saved". Hallelujah! He has also asked for prayer for finding a way to pay for his children's school tuition. Lord Jesus, Heavenly Father, we trust in You in all things, and know You are faithful to provide. We lift our brother and his family up to You, that You would strengthen their faith, and keep them in Your hand, providing all that they need. In Jesus' name, Amen!

Hello everyone,
I hope you are all having a wonderful week so far! This week another sister has been messaging me about the challenges and persecution they continue to face in Pakistan. She said that they are facing a lot of oppression and violence and that life is not good there. She mentioned suffering such as the slavery occurring in the brick kilns, churches being burned in some places as well as people having their lives taken. She asked for us all to pray for the people in her village and all the families.

Please continue to pray for our brothers and sisters and all those suffering in the region of Pakistan. All the people here are hungry for the Word of God and so I pray Lord please bring Your Word to Your children and fill them and protect them in Your righteous Name Lord Jesus, Amen.
