Selection Criteria: The proposal submission should address the following criteria:

- Identify the appropriate audience(s) suited for the session (i.e., superintendents, central office, teachers, principals, curriculum leaders, parents, higher education, high school, middle school, elementary, K-12.)
- State in a concise sentence(s) how the workshop supports the strand; avoid rambling, editorializing, or discussing the issue or topic.
- Denote, where appropriate, how the session's content is based on external evaluation or documented success. State clearly the 2-3 specific goals to be achieved in the session for the participants.
- Describe how the audience engagement or interactive participation will occur within the session.
- State the specific resources, materials, and/or tools that will be shared with the participants and that can be used immediately as takeaways.
