

BY-LAWS
OF THE
ALLIANCE OF BLACK SCHOOL EDUCATORS

ARTICLE 1 – PURPOSE

The purpose of the by-laws is to provide the technical detail needed to implement the provisions of the constitution and to assure the orderly and effective functioning of the South Carolina Alliance of Black School Educators.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the South Carolina Alliance of Black School Educators shall be open to those persons who meet qualifications set forth in the constitution. Types of membership shall consist of:

Section I – Individual Membership

(1) Active Membership

Any interested person employed by a public or private educational institution in the state of South Carolina, including TERI participants.

(2) Retired Membership

Any person who has retired from employment in a public or private educational institution in the state of South Carolina.

(3) Student Membership

Any person who is a full time student in a college or university in education or a related field and not eligible for active membership shall be eligible for student membership.

(4) Honorary Membership

The Executive Board shall have the right to confer honorary membership by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

(5) Affiliate membership

Any persons or organization not provided for in the other classifications.

Section 2 – Rights and Privileges

(a) Active and retired members of the Alliance shall be entitled to all rights and privileges including the right to vote and hold office.

(b) Affiliate, honorary, and student members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Alliance as determined by the Executive Board except the right to vote and hold office.

ARTICLE III – DUES

Section 1 – Dues

Annual membership dues shall be set by the Board and approved by the membership. Membership fees will be due on January 31 of the year.

ARTICLE IV – OFFICERS

Section 1 – Eligibility of Officers

Active and retired members of the organization in good standing shall be eligible for election to the office of president, president-elect, recording secretary, corresponding secretary, treasurer, and historian/parliamentarian. A member is in good standing when he/she has paid his/her membership dues.

Section 2 – Term of Office

Officers shall serve a two-year term. No officer shall serve more than two terms; unless there is a recommendation from the Executive Board and the Nominating Committee to the general body that an officer is offered as a candidate for an additional term(s).

Section 3 – Duties of Officers

(a) President

The President shall have all general powers and the duties which are generally vested in the office of President as defined by Robert's Rules of Order; shall preside at all meetings of the Executive Board and general assemblies; shall appoint the chairpersons of all committees, standing and ad hoc; shall appoint individuals to fulfill responsibilities deemed necessary to accomplish the objectives of the organization; shall serve as the principal spokesperson of the organization.

(b) President-Elect

The President-Elect shall carry out the duties of the president in the president's absence and shall perform such other functions as may be set forth in the Constitution and by-laws. The President-Elect will assume the office of President at the completion of his/her elected term.

(c) Recording Secretary

The Recording Secretary shall maintain an accurate record of the proceedings of the Organization and shall pass this material on, in good condition, to succeeding secretaries.

(d) Corresponding Secretary

The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct correspondence on behalf of the Organization as directed by the President or Executive Board and shall maintain an accurate list of membership.

(e) Treasurer

The Treasurer shall receive and record all monies received by the Organization and disburse all monies owed by the Organization as directed by the Executive Board. The treasurer shall also report on the final status of the Organization at every regularly scheduled meeting.

(f) Historian/Parliamentarian

The Historian shall maintain an accurate record of the activities and accomplishments of the organization as well as maintain order and ensure the use of Parliamentary Procedure for all meetings.

Section 4 – Method of Selection

(a) Officers of the Alliance shall be elected by a vote of the membership. The election shall be held during a general meeting.

(b) Nominations

(1) The Nominating Committee appointed by the President, shall present a slate of officers to the general membership for consideration.

(2) Members may make additional nominations from the floor.

(c) Installation of Officers

Newly elected officers will be recognized and installed at the conclusion of the general meeting at which they were elected.

Section 5 – Vacancies

(a) President

In the absence of the President, either temporarily or indefinitely, the President-Elect shall assume the responsibilities of the office.

(b) President-Elect

Should the office of President-Elect become permanently vacant, the President shall appoint a member to fill the vacancy. The appointment shall be confirmed by a majority of the Executive Board.

(c) Secretary, Treasurer or Historian/Parliamentarian

Should the office of recording secretary, corresponding secretary, treasurer or historian become permanently vacant, the president of the Organization shall appoint a replacement. Such appointment shall be approved by a simple majority Executive Board. The president may also call for an immediate election to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term.

ARTICLE V – EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section 1 – Composition

The Executive Board shall be comprised of the elected officers of the Alliance, the immediate past President, Committee Chairs, presidents of satellites, and others appointed by the President.

Section 2 – Term of Office

Officers shall serve a two-year term. No officer shall serve more than two terms; unless there is a recommendation from the Executive Board and the Nominating Committee to the general body that an officer is offered as a candidate for an additional term(s).

All Board members shall serve a two-year term.

Section 3 – Chairperson of the Executive Board

The President of the Alliance shall serve as Chairperson of the Executive Board. In the absence of the President, the President-Elect shall serve as Chairperson of the Board. Should both the President and President-Elect be unable to attend an Executive Board meeting, the President shall designate one of the other Board members to preside at the meeting.

The Executive Board shall review and approve all policies and practices of the Organization and, in all matters, serve as the official body to speak in behalf of the organization.

- (a) The Executive Board shall have the power to review and determine the eligibility of all applicants for membership except that no individual be denied membership on the basis of any identifying characteristic(s).
- (b) The Executive Board shall be called into session at least monthly or as determined by the president.
- (c) The quorum shall consist of a majority of the Executive Board (at least six members).
