

A black and white photograph of a white, arched relief sculpture. The sculpture is set within a semi-circular frame. It depicts a religious scene: a central figure, the Virgin Mary, is seated and holding the Christ Child on her lap. To the left, a figure kneels in prayer, looking up at Mary. To the right, two other figures stand, one of whom appears to be a young child. The background of the relief shows stylized foliage and a tree on the left. The entire sculpture is mounted on a dark, textured surface.

A white ceramic sculpture of two cherubs. One cherub is in the foreground, looking slightly to the right with a gentle expression. The second cherub is positioned behind and to the left, resting its head against the first cherub's shoulder. Both figures have curly hair and small, delicate wings. The sculpture is set against a plain, light-colored background.

A white, carved figure of a bearded man in a long robe, possibly a saint or monk, standing and holding a book. The figure is shown from the waist up, facing slightly to the left. He has a full, curly beard and is wearing a long, flowing robe with a visible clasp or brooch at the waist. He is holding a book or tablet in his left hand. The carving is simple and stylized, with a focus on the facial features and the folds of the robe.
