

79th Annual Dillingersville Pilgrimage

Sunday, June 29, 2025

Dillingersville Schoolhouse
7226 School House Lane,
Zionsville, PA

- Bring your family and friends to this beautiful, historic setting
- Grab your favorite comfortable lawn chair or sit in one of the classic wooden ones provided under the big tent
- *Join the Lutherans, Mennonites, and U.C.C. congregations for a combined outdoor worship service at 10:30 a.m.
- A PA Dutch style picnic lunch will be available for a donation, or if you prefer, you are welcome to bring your own brown bag lunch
- Lots of amazing homemade baked goods available for sale!
- *Join us at 12:30 p.m. for an hour of lively folk songs, blending PA Dutch, Pälzisch (Palatine German), and English with the Pälzer Krischer un der Blohbariyer (Scott Reagan). Scott is a Northampton County native and Martin Guitar employee, and met and performed with the Pälzer Krischer (Palatine Criers) in Germany in October 2024. The band, Pälzer Krischer, will be joining us from Altrip, Germany, the “sister city” of Kutztown, as part of their Hiwwe wie Driwwe Pennsylvania Tour 2025! Kummt do un singt mit uns!*

For updates, please check the Zion's Evangelical Lutheran Facebook page or visit the Dillingersville Union School and Church Association website. If necessary due to weather, the event will be relocated to Zion's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Old Zionsville. For questions, please call the church office at (610) 966-3834, Wednesday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

