THE WORD

First Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Paul says to the believers in Corinth: "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night when He was betrayed, took a loaf of bread. And when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, 'This is My body that is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of Me.' In the same way He took the cup after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsive Reading: Psalm 139:1-4, 15-16

Lord, you have searched me out;

O Lord, you have known me.

You know my sitting down and my rising up;

You discern my thoughts from far away.

You trace my journeys and my resting places, and are acquainted with all my ways.

Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, but You, O Lord, know it altogether...

My body was not hidden from you while I was being made in secret, and woven in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb;

All of them were written in your book;

My days were fashioned before they came to be.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia

pg. 188

S 188

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Holy Gospel: Matthew 26:17-19, 26-28

Glory to you, Lord Christ,

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where do you want us to make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?" Jesus said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, My time is near; I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover meal...

While they were eating, Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it, he broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body." Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the Covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

Praise to you, O Christ.

The Dutchman

Rebecca Seevers

The Dutchman's not the kind of man who keeps his thumb jammed in the dam that keeps his dreams in; but that's a secret that only Margaret knows. When Amsterdam is golden in the summer, Margaret brings him breakfast. She believes him: he thinks the tulips bloom beneath the snow. He's mad as can be, but Margaret only sees that sometimes; sometimes she sees her unborn children in his eyes.

Let us go to the banks of the ocean
Where the walls rise above the Zuider Zee.
Long ago, I used to be a young man
And dear Margaret remembers that for me.

The Dutchman still wears wooden shoes, his cap and coat are patched with the love Margaret sewed there. Sometimes he still thinks he's in Rotterdam. And he watches the tug-boats down canals, and called out to them when he thinks he knows the Captain, till Margaret comes to take him home again. Through unforgiving streets that trip him, though she holds his arm, sometimes he thinks he's alone and he calls her name.

Let us go to the banks of the ocean
Where the walls rise above the Zuider Zee.
Long ago, I used to be a young man
And dear Margaret remembers that for me.

The winters whirl the windmills 'round, she winds his muffler tighter, and they sit in the kitchen. Some tea with whiskey keeps away the dew. And he sees her for a moment, calls her name; she makes the bed up singing some old love song- a song Margaret learned when it was new. He hums a line or two, they sing together in the dark. The Dutchman calls asleep and Margaret blows the candle out.

Let us go to the banks of the ocean
Where the walls rise above the Zuider Zee.
Long ago, I used to be a young man
And dear Margaret remembers that for me.

Preface

pg. 190

Pastor: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Prayer of Consecration

Gracious God, Mother and Father of us all, we praise and bless You for creation and the gift of life,
and for Your abiding love which brings us close to You.

We thank You for drawing near to us,
and whispering to our hearts the Dream of Your own Heart,
passed down through the ages through the prophets and apostles,
And especially through the life of Your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ.

We rejoice that in Christ, life has triumphed over death,
and love has triumphed over hate,
and by the power of Your Holy Spirit shall we be gathered to live in Christ's life and love and triumph to the end of time.
Thank you most Holy God, for Your astounding gift.

Words of Institution

The Lord Jesus, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks,
He broke it and said:

'Take, eat; this is my Body which is broken for You.
Do this in remembrance of Me.'

In the same way, after He had supped, He took the cup saying:
'This is the cup of the New Covenant.
Do this, as oft as you drink of it, in remembrance of Me.'

O Lord, You who are closer to us than we are to ourselves,
send Your Holy Spirit upon us,
and upon these elements of bread & wine,
that the bread which we break may be to us
the communion of the Body of Christ,
and the cup of blessing which we bless,
the Communion of the Blood of Christ.

Holy God, we give you all praise & honor as our Lord.
In this holy moment, we consecrate ourselves in soul & body, property & life,
to Thy most blessed service and praise.
Thank You, Lord, for Your kindness.

✠ Through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Spirit, be all honor & glory, world without end. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins,
As we forgive those who sin against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever.
Amen.

Prayers of Concern and Celebrations

Dear Lord,

We bring to you the burdens we carry, and our prayers for healing and comfort. We remember people suffering around the world, amid the turmoil of political strife, and those often wounded or killed for the sake of their Christian belief. We pray for the leaders around the world that, regardless of their religious belief, the Holy Spirit works in their hearts and minds to instill a sense of freedom and justice for all, especially those who are unable to advocate for themselves. Keep those who are suffering in mind and body close to you. Heal the sick, injured and those suffering with other medical conditions. Wrap them, their caregivers and their families in your tender embrace, so that they feel the grace, love, and comfort which only you can provide. For all, we pray that your will be done.

We especially pray for:

- Joann Wolfgram - recovery from surgery - Barb, Rebecca and Donna
- Gina - medical - Connie Flairty
- Dwaine - paralyzed from fall - Rose Leben

Lord, we thank you for all the wonderful gifts which you bestow on us. Let us be a blessing to others, using what you have so freely given us... our time, our talents, our empathy... Thank you for today, and I pray your Holy Spirit continue to guide me on my journey, and that your light continues to shine through us.

Today, we especially remember and thank you for:

- Birthdays: Samuel Hagerstrand, Gail Lame, Dave Kawecki, Chuck Gallagher, Michelle Tayler, Courtney Stangl
- Anniversaries: John & Sylvia Bauman /34 years; Jim & Valerie Lamp /16 years

All of this we bring to you in prayer, confident that you will hear us. This we ask, in Jesus' name. Amen
