Guest Speaker:

Holly Jordan:

Technology Use: Make it safe and satisfying

-children shouldn't think technology is something to fear

-understand the media the child is using (if you don't please reachout to myself or Mette we can help with any lack of understanding).

-Check online browsing history,

-Make it concrete that what is put online stays online forever

-cyberbullying, sexting and unwanted communications either sending or receiving.

-Teach behavior that is expected from them in person applies to online as well, being respectful.

-Children are watching their parents: be a good role model

*-Highly recommended documentary by Mette Armark, co president Backlash:
