Looking Ahead.....

World Communion Sunday	October 2, 2022, 10:00 a.m. service; communion will be served by intinction. Prefilled communion cups (wafer and juice) may be provided upon request. A gluten-free option will be available. In addition, and on this special Sunday, you are invited to bake a loaf or two of bread of any size or kind and bring it to the church. Please place your bread donation on the table in the Narthex. You may take bread of your choice home with you as a "Thank You" for a donation that will support World Communion Sunday. All donations collected for the bread will support national and international scholarships for training various ethnic students with needed skills and resources for their communities. The Missions Committee sincerely thanks everyone for their help with this worldwide mission project.
